

Chapter 1

Worksheet

Instructions:

Please complete all activities in this worksheet. Write your answers in the spaces provided or on separate sheets if needed.

Worksheet for Chapter 1: Understanding Change and Uncertainty

Welcome to the Chapter 1 Worksheet for Adaptability & Resilience Skills in a Changing World! This worksheet is designed to help you reflect on the concepts from the chapter, apply them to your own life, and engage with the material in a hands-on way. Complete the activities below by following the instructions for each section. Let's dive into understanding change and uncertainty!

Part 1: Exploring How Change Happens (Section 1)

Objective: Identify and reflect on different types of change in your life. Activity – Change Detective Challenge

Over the next week (or based on recent experiences), jot down one example of change in each of the following areas. Write a short sentence about how each change affects you.

- Personal Life Change (e.g., family or friendship shift)
 - Example: _____
 - How it affects me: _____
- School Change (e.g., new teacher, schedule, or rules)
 - Example: _____
 - How it affects me: _____
- World Around Us Change (e.g., global trend, news event, or technology)
 - Example: _____
 - How it affects me: _____

Reflection Question: Which of these changes feels the most impactful to you right now, and why?

Part 2: Understanding Emotions Tied to Unpredictability (Section 2)

Objective: Recognize and name emotions related to change and uncertainty. Activity – Emotion Emoji Map

Think of a recent change in your life (big or small). List 3-5 emotions you felt because of this change. For each emotion, write one reason why you felt that way. (Optional: Draw emojis next to each emotion if you'd like!)

- Change I'm thinking of: _____
- Emotion: _____ Reason: _____
- Emotion: _____ Reason: _____
- Emotion: _____ Reason: _____
- Emotion: _____ Reason: _____
- Emotion: _____ Reason: _____

Reflection Question: How did naming these emotions help you think about the change differently?

Part 3: Seeing Change as an Opportunity (Section 3)

Objective: Practice shifting your mindset to find opportunities in change. Activity – Opportunity Hunt Pick a change that felt annoying or challenging recently. Write down the change, then list at least 2 possible opportunities or positive outcomes that could come from it.

- Change: _____
- Opportunity: _____
- Opportunity: _____

Reflection Question: Was it hard or easy to find opportunities in this change? Why do you think that is?

Part 4: Analyzing Change Through Role-Play (New Activity)

Objective: Explore how different perspectives can influence reactions to change.

Activity – Change Scenario Role-Play Imagine a scenario where your school suddenly announces that all extracurricular activities (like sports, clubs, or band) will be moved online for the rest of the semester due to unexpected circumstances. Think about how different people might react to this change. Answer the following questions from the perspectives listed below.

- As Yourself:
 - How would you feel about this change? _____
 - What's one challenge you'd face? _____
 - What's one opportunity you might find? _____
- As a Team Captain of a Sports Team:
 - How would you feel about this change? _____
 - What's one challenge you'd face? _____
 - What's one opportunity you might find? _____
- As a Shy Student Who Just Joined a Club:
 - How would you feel about this change? _____
 - What's one challenge you'd face? _____
 - What's one opportunity you might find? _____

Reflection Question: How did thinking from different perspectives change your view of this situation?

Part 5: Building a Support Network for Change (New Activity)

Objective: Identify resources and people who can help during times of change. Activity – Support Network Map Change can be easier to handle when you have support. Think about who or what can help you during times of uncertainty. Fill in the map below with at least one person, place, or thing for each category that you can turn to when facing change.

- Family Member(s): _____ How they can help: _____
- Friend(s): _____ How they can help: _____
- Teacher or Mentor: _____ How they can help: _____
- Place (e.g., library, park): _____ How it can help: _____
- Activity or Hobby : _____ How it can help: ____

Reflection Question: Which of these supports do you think you'd turn to first during a tough change, and why?

Part 6: Wrapping Up – Personal Vision for Change

Objective: Create a personal reminder of how you want to approach change. Activity – Mini Change Vision

Board In the space below (or on a separate sheet if you need more room), create a small vision board. Include words, phrases, or small doodles that represent how you want to handle change in your personal life, school, and the world. Add one key word or phrase that captures your mindset toward change (e.g., “Growth” or “Adventure”).

[Drawing/Writing Space]

My Key Word/Phrase for Change: _____

Final Reflection

Question: After completing this worksheet, what’s one thing you’ve learned about change or uncertainty that you’ll carry with you?