Worksheet: Chapter 6 - Essential Work Skills and Professional Development

Instructions: Answer the prompts below honestly and thoughtfully. Use this as a personal reflection tool or discuss your answers with peers or mentors for feedback. Keep this worksheet as a reference for ongoing professional development.

Part 1: Identifying Your Transferable Skills

- List 3 transferable skills you've developed through college experiences (e.g., group projects, part-time jobs, or extracurriculars). Examples include communication, problem-solving, or adaptability.
 - Skill 1: _____
 - Skill 2: _____
 - Skill 3: _____
- Choose one skill from above and write a brief example of how you've used it in the past (e.g., "I used teamwork to coordinate a group presentation by delegating tasks").
 - Example: _____

Part 2: Crafting Your Elevator Pitch

- Write a short elevator pitch (30-60 seconds) using the structure from the chapter: Introduce yourself, highlight a strength or achievement, state your career goal, and end with a hook.
 - My Elevator Pitch: _____
- Practice Tip: Read your pitch aloud or record it. Does it sound natural and stay under 60 seconds? Note one thing to improve (e.g., tone, pacing).
 - Improvement Note: _____

Part 3: Workplace Etiquette Reflection

- Scenario: You're sending your first professional email to a coworker. Write a sample subject line and opening sentence that follows etiquette rules (polite and concise).
 - Subject Line: _____
 - Opening Sentence: _____
- Punctuality Goal: How will you ensure you're on time for meetings or deadlines this week? (e.g., set reminders, arrive 5 minutes early)
 - My Plan: _____

Part 4: Emotional Intelligence Self-Check

- Self-Awareness Exercise: Think of a recent stressful moment. How did you react, and what could you do differently next time to stay calm?
 - Reaction: _____
 - Better Approach: _____
- Empathy Action: Write one way you can show empathy to a coworker or peer this week (e.g., ask how they're doing, offer help).
 - My Action: _____

Part 5: Conflict Resolution and Problem-Solving Plan

- Conflict Strategy: If a teammate disagrees with your idea, what's one step from the chapter (e.g., stay calm, listen actively) you'll use to handle it?
 - My Step: _____
- Problem-Solving Practice: Think of a small issue you've faced recently (e.g., missed deadline). Define the issue and brainstorm one possible solution.
 - Issue: _____
 - Solution: _____

Part 6: Time Management Commitment

- Priority Task: List one important task you need to complete this week. Use the Eisenhower Matrix—Is it Urgent/Important or Important/Not Urgent?
 - Task: _____
 - Category: _____
- Productivity Technique: Choose one method (e.g., Pomodoro, Time Blocking) to try for 1 day. How will you implement it?
 - Chosen Method: _____
 - Implementation Plan: _____

Part 7: Teamwork and Cross-Cultural Awareness

- Team Role Reflection: In your last group project or job, what role did you play (e.g., organizer, researcher)? How did you contribute to the team's success?
 - Role and Contribution: _____
- Cross-Cultural Tip: Write one way you'll adapt communication if working with someone from a different background (e.g., use clear language, ask questions).
 - My Adaptation: _____

Final Reflection: Action Step

Choose one skill or concept from this chapter (e.g., elevator pitch, time management) to focus on this week. Write a specific goal and how you'll measure progress.

- Focus Area: _____
- Goal: _____
- Progress Check (How I'll know I succeeded): _____
