Worksheet for Chapter 5: Diversity, Inclusion, and Indigenous Reconciliation

This worksheet is designed for new students to reflect on and apply the key concepts from Chapter 5. It includes short-answer questions, a practical activity, and a personal commitment section. Complete this worksheet individually or discuss your answers in a group during your orientation session. Let's prepare for a respectful and inclusive journey in Canada!

Part 1: Short-Answer Reflection Questions Answer the following questions in 2-3 sentences each. Use what you've learned from Chapter 5 to guide your responses.

- Canadian Multiculturalism Act: How does the Canadian Multiculturalism Act support you as an international student in maintaining your cultural identity?
- Indigenous Context and Reconciliation: Why is learning about the history of residential schools and the Truth and Reconciliation Commission important for newcomers to Canada?
- Land Acknowledgements: What steps can you take to make a land acknowledgement authentic when you arrive at your campus?
- Gender Identity and Inclusive Language: How can using someone's correct pronouns help build a welcoming community on campus?
- Religious Accommodation: What would you do if you needed a religious accommodation for a holiday or practice while studying in Canada?
- Anti-Discrimination Laws: Name one way you can support a peer who experiences discrimination based on race or ethnicity under Canada's human rights laws.

Part 2: Practical Activity - "Cultural Connection Plan" Objective: Create a simple plan to engage with diversity and inclusion when you arrive in Canada. Instructions: Fill in the table below with one specific action you will take for each topic within your first month on campus. Be realistic and creative!

Topic	Action I Will Take	Why I Chose This Action
Celebrating Multiculturalism	(e.g., Attend a cultural festival on campus)	(e.g., To learn about other cultures and share mine)
Learning About Indigenous Culture

Practicing Inclusive Language
