

Chapter 6

MCQs

Question 1

What is one of the main benefits of daily journaling for teens, as discussed in Chapter 6?

- A) It helps improve handwriting skills for school assignments
- B) It provides a stress release and a way to process emotions without judgment
- C) It guarantees better grades in creative writing classes
- D) It replaces the need for talking to friends or family about problemsCorrect Answer:B) It provides a stress release and a way to process emotions without judgment

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 2

Which of the following best describes a Gratitude Journal, according to Chapter 6?

- A) A journal where you write down your dreams immediately after waking up
- B) A journal focused on writing about things you're thankful for, big or small
- C) A journal for reflecting deeply on why certain events or feelings happened
- D) A journal used to plan future goals and career aspirationsCorrect Answer:B) A journal focused on writing about things you're thankful for, big or small

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 3

How can writing prompts help teens with journaling, as explained in Chapter 6?

- ☐ A) They provide strict rules to ensure journal entries are written correctly
 - ☒ B) They act as starting points to overcome a blank page and spark personal reflection
 - ☐ C) They are only useful for turning journal entries into creative stories
 - ☐ D) They limit the topics teens can write about to avoid emotional topics
- Correct Answer: B) They act as starting points to overcome a blank page and spark personal reflection

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 4

What is a key step in turning a journal entry into a creative piece, as outlined in Chapter 6?

- ☐ A) Deleting the original entry to start fresh with a new idea
 - ☒ B) Identifying the core feeling or idea in the entry to build a poem, story, or song around it
 - ☐ C) Copying the entry word-for-word into a new format without changes
 - ☐ D) Sharing the entry online before deciding on a creative form
- Correct Answer: B) Identifying the core feeling or idea in the entry to build a poem, story, or song around it

Note: No correct answer specified for this question