

Chapter 6

Worksheet

Instructions:

Please complete all activities in this worksheet. Write your answers in the spaces provided or on separate sheets if needed.

Worksheet: Chapter 6 - Journaling for Self-Discovery

Purpose: This worksheet is designed to help students engage with the key concepts from Chapter 6, reflect on their understanding of journaling, and apply the ideas of daily writing benefits, different journal types, personal reflection through prompts, and transforming entries into creative pieces. It includes a mix of short-answer questions, journaling activities, and creative tasks tailored for teens to encourage self-discovery and expression

Part 1: What is Journaling? Benefits of Daily Writing

Objective: Understand the purpose of journaling and its benefits for teens.

- Quick Think: In 1-2 sentences, write what journaling means to you after reading Chapter 6. (Example: Journaling is writing my thoughts daily to clear my head.)
- Benefit Check: Pick one benefit of daily writing from Chapter 6 (like stress release or self-discovery) and write 1-2 sentences on how it could help you in your teen life. Chosen Benefit: _____

Part 2: Different Types of Journals (Gratitude, Dream, Reflective)

Objective: Explore and try out different journaling styles. 3. Match the Type: Match each journal type to its focus by writing the correct letter next to it.

- Gratitude Journal _____
- Dream Journal _____
- Reflective Journal _____ A. Writing about dreams right after waking up to capture imagination B. Thinking deeply about events or feelings to understand them better C. Listing things you're thankful for to focus on positivity
- Mini Journal Try-Out: Pick one journal type and write a short entry (3-5 sentences) based on it. (Example: For Gratitude, list 3 things you're thankful for today.) Label the type you chose. Type Chosen: _____

Part 3: Writing Prompts for Personal Reflection

Objective: Use prompts to spark deeper thoughts and self-discovery. 5. Prompt Response: Choose one prompt below and write a short journal entry (3-5 sentences) in response.

- What's one high school moment you'll never forget, and why?
- If you could text your future self in 5 years, what would you say?
- What's one thing you wish someone understood about you right now? Chosen Prompt: _____
- Reflection on Prompt: In 1-2 sentences, write how it felt to answer this prompt. Did it make you think or feel something new?

Part 4: Turning Journal Entries into Creative Pieces

Objective: Transform a personal journal entry into a creative work. 7. Creative Transformation: Pick one of your journal entries from Part 2 or Part 3 (or write a quick new one, 3-5 sentences). Turn it into a short creative piece—choose a poem (5-10 lines), story opening (3-5 sentences), or song snippet (4-6 lines). Label the form you picked.

Form Chosen: _____

- Process Reflection: In 1-2 sentences, write how it felt to turn a personal entry into a creative piece. Was it easy, hard, or fun?

Part 5: Personal Reflection and Goal Setting

Objective: Reflect on journaling and plan to keep writing. 9. Chapter Takeaway: What was your favorite or most interesting part of Chapter 6 (benefits, journal types, prompts, or creative pieces)? Write 1-2 sentences about why.

- Journaling Goal: Set a small goal for journaling over the next week (like writing 3 entries or trying a new journal type). Write your goal in 1 sentence. My

Goal: _____

Bonus Challenge (Optional): Keep a “Mini Journal” for 3 days. Write 1-2 sentences each day about anything—a feeling, a moment, or a thought. Pick one day’s entry and turn it into a tiny creative piece (like a 3-line poem) on the back of this worksheet or in your notes. Decide if you’ll share it or keep it private.