Worksheet for Chapter 2: Understanding Emergencies

Hey, high school heroes! Welcome to your Chapter 2 Worksheet. This activity sheet is designed to reinforce what you've learned about identifying emergencies, recognizing common scenarios, and preparing like a pro. Complete each section to test your skills, reflect on real-life applications, and level up your crisis management game. Grab a pen, get creative, and let's save the day together!

Part 1: Scenario Analysis – “Emergency or Not?”

Read the scenarios below and decide if each is a minor emergency, major emergency, or not an emergency at all. Write your answer in the blank and give a short reason why. Rate the urgency (1 = “No rush” to 5 = “Act NOW!”).

- Scenario: Your friend spills juice on their shirt during lunch and is embarrassed.
 - Classification: _____
 - Reason: _____
 - Urgency Rating (1-5): ____
- Scenario: You're at a park, and a classmate falls off a swing, hits their head, and isn't moving.
 - Classification: _____
 - Reason: _____
 - Urgency Rating (1-5): ____
- Scenario: During a storm, water starts flooding into your basement while you're home alone.
 - Classification: _____
 - Reason: _____
 - Urgency Rating (1-5): ____

Part 2: Emergency Kit Checklist

Imagine you're building your own emergency kit for your backpack. Check off the items you'd include from the list below (aim for at least 5 essentials). Then, add one personal item that's unique to you and explain why you'd include it.

- Bandages and antiseptic wipes
- Water bottle
- Non-perishable snack (like a granola bar)
- Flashlight with extra batteries

- Phone charger or power bank
- Small amount of cash ($10-20)
- Note with medical info/allergies

My Unique Item: _____ Why I'd Include It:

Part 3: Emergency Contacts Action Plan

List three emergency contacts or numbers you should have saved in your phone or written down. For each, write one situation where you'd call them instead of someone else.

- Contact/Number: _____
 - Situation to Call: _____
- Contact/Number: _____
 - Situation to Call: _____
- Contact/Number: _____
 - Situation to Call: _____

Part 4: Reflection & Creative Challenge

Answer the following questions to reflect on what you've learned. Then, get creative with a mini-project!

- Reflection: What's one emergency situation from this chapter that you feel more prepared for now, and why?
- Creative Challenge – Quick Social Media Post: Write a short social media caption (or sketch a meme idea) to share one tip from Chapter 2 (like a kit item or calling 911). Use the hashtag #TeenCrisisHero.

Caption/Meme Idea: _____

Wrap-Up Note: Awesome work, teen heroes! You've tackled identifying emergencies, analyzed real scenarios, planned your kit, and set up your contacts. Keep this worksheet handy as a reference, and share your creative challenge with friends to spread the safety vibe. You're building skills that make you unstoppable—let's carry this energy into the next chapter on basic first aid!
