

Chapter 8

Worksheet

Instructions:

Please complete all activities in this worksheet. Write your answers in the spaces provided or on separate sheets if needed.

Chapter 8- Disaster Preparedness and Response Worksheet

Hey teens! This worksheet is designed to help you apply the key concepts from Chapter 8 on Disaster Preparedness and Response. Use what you've learned about natural disasters, family emergency plans, and community resources to complete the activities below. Let's test your skills, spark some creativity, and get you ready to be a disaster-preparedness pro! Answer in the spaces provided, and feel free to discuss with family or friends for extra ideas.

Part 1: Scenario-Based Application

Read the scenario below and answer the questions to show how you'd handle a real-life situation.

Scenario: You're at home with your younger sibling when you hear a loud rumble and feel the ground shaking—an earthquake! Objects start falling off shelves, and the power flickers. Your family has a plan, but your sibling looks scared and freezes.

- What are the immediate steps you should take to keep yourself and your sibling safe during the shaking? (Hint: Think of the key phrase from the chapter.)
- Where in your home would you go to protect yourselves, and why? (Think of safe spots discussed.)
- After the shaking stops, what should you check for before moving around, and what should you be prepared for?

Part 2: Family Emergency Plan Activity

Let's put your planning skills to work! Fill out the chart below to start creating or updating your family's emergency plan. If you don't know some details, talk to your family after completing this worksheet.

Category	Details for Your Family Plan
Safe Spot for Earthquake	(e.g., Under a sturdy desk in the living room)
Safe Spot for Flood	(e.g., Second floor or nearby hill)
Fire Escape Meeting Point	(e.g., Mailbox across the street)

Backup Meeting Point	(e.g., Local park or school if neighborhood is unsafe)
Out-of-Area Contact	(Name and phone number of someone far away to call)
Go Bag Items	(List at least 5 essentials you'd pack, like water, snacks)

Category

Details for Your Family Plan

Safe Spot for Earthquake

(e.g., Under a sturdy desk in the living room)

Safe Spot for Flood

(e.g., Second floor or nearby hill)

Fire Escape Meeting Point

(e.g., Mailbox across the street)

Backup Meeting Point

(e.g., Local park or school if neighborhood is unsafe)

Out-of-Area Contact

(Name and phone number of someone far away to call)

Go Bag Items

(List at least 5 essentials you'd pack, like water, snacks)

Reflection Question: Why is it important to have both a primary and backup meeting point in your plan?

Part 3: Community Connection

Think about how you can connect with and help your community during a disaster. Answer the following questions to brainstorm ideas.

- Name one place in your area that could serve as an emergency shelter (e.g., a school or community center). How would you find out if it's open during a disaster?
- Imagine your town just experienced a flood. How could you and your friends help as teen volunteers? List two specific actions you could take.
 - Action 1: _____
 - Action 2: _____

Part 4: Creative Challenge – Disaster Prep Game Plan

Turn preparedness into something fun! Design a quick "Disaster Dash Challenge" for your family or friends to practice emergency drills. Write a short description of your challenge below, including:

- The type of disaster you're simulating (earthquake, fire, etc.).
- One rule or obstacle to make it realistic (e.g., crawl under "smoke" using a blanket).
- A reward for the winner (e.g., picking the next movie night).

My Disaster Dash Challenge:

Bonus Reflection

What's one thing from this chapter that surprised you or made you feel more confident about handling a disaster? How will you use it in real life?

Wrap-Up Note: Great job completing this worksheet! Share your answers or ideas with your family to start building your emergency plan together. Remember, being prepared isn't just about safety—it's about being a leader and helper when it matters most. Keep this worksheet handy as a reminder of your disaster-ready skills!