

Chapter 4

Worksheet

Instructions:

Please complete all activities in this worksheet. Write your answers in the spaces provided or on separate sheets if needed.

Worksheet for Chapter 4: Global Diversity – Traditions and Values

Objective: To help students explore and understand global traditions, family structures, cultural norms, and the difference between cultural appreciation and appropriation through reflection, activities, and critical thinking.

Part 1: Major World Cultures – Traditions and Holidays

Instructions: Reflect on the diverse traditions and holidays from different regions. Answer the following questions with 2-3 sentences each, using examples from the chapter or your own experiences.

- Asia (Focus on India): What is the significance of Diwali in Indian culture, and how does it reflect values like family or gratitude? Have you or someone you know celebrated something similar?
- Choose Another Region: Pick one other region from the chapter (Africa, Europe, the Americas, or the Middle East). Describe a holiday or tradition (like Día de los Muertos or Ramadan) and a value it represents. Would you like to experience it, and why?

Part 2: Family and Community Structures

Instructions: Compare family and community dynamics across cultures. Complete the table below by providing examples based on the chapter.

Scenario: How family decisions are made (e.g., career choices, daily plans).

Culture/Region	Family Structure & Decision-Making Style
India (Joint Family)
Choose Another (e.g., U.S., Mexico, etc.)

Family Structure & Decision-Making Style

India (Joint Family)

Choose Another (e.g., U.S., Mexico, etc.)

Reflection Question: How does your family's structure or decision-making style compare to one from the chapter (like India's joint family)? (2-3 sentences)

Part 3: Cultural Norms and Etiquette

Instructions: Understanding etiquette helps avoid misunderstandings. Answer the following questions with 2-3 sentences each.

- Greetings Across Cultures: Describe a greeting style from the chapter (like Namaste in India or a bow in Japan). Why is it important to adapt to different greetings when meeting someone from another culture?
- Dining Etiquette: What is one dining norm from the chapter (e.g., eating with the right hand in India or keeping hands on the table in France)? Have you ever followed or noticed a unique dining rule in your own life?

Mini-Activity: Pair up with a classmate (or imagine a scenario). Practice a greeting from the chapter (like saying "Namaste" with pressed palms). Write down one thing you noticed or found interesting about trying it.

What I Noticed: _____

Part 4: Cultural Appreciation vs. Appropriation

Instructions: Reflect on how to respectfully engage with other cultures. Answer the questions below with 2-3 sentences each.

- Appreciation Example: Describe a way you could show cultural appreciation based on the chapter (e.g., wearing a kurta to an Indian event with guidance). Why does learning the meaning behind a tradition matter?
- Avoiding Appropriation: What's one example of cultural appropriation from the chapter (like wearing a sacred item as a costume)? How can you check if your actions are respectful before trying something from another culture?

Creative Task: Imagine you're invited to a Diwali celebration. Write or sketch a quick plan for how you'd participate respectfully (e.g., asking about attire, helping with rangoli). Use the space below or continue on the back if needed.

Plan or Sketch: _____

Part 5: Cross-Cultural Scenario

Instructions: Read the scenario below and answer the questions to apply what you've learned.

Scenario: At a school cultural fair, you see a booth for Brazilian Carnival with costumes and music. You want to try on a costume and dance, but you're not sure if it's okay. There's also an Indian booth with henna designs, and you're curious but don't know its meaning.

- How could you approach the Brazilian booth to ensure you're showing appreciation, not appropriation? (2-3 sentences)
- What steps could you take at the Indian booth to learn about henna before getting a design? (2-3 sentences)

Part 6: Critical Thinking Question

Instructions: Answer the following question in 3-5 sentences to reflect on the importance of understanding global diversity.

How can learning about traditions, family structures, and cultural norms from this chapter help you in school, friendships, or future careers? Use an example like joining a Diwali party or working with diverse teammates.

Part 7: Fun Challenge – "Global Diversity Badge"

Instructions: Design a small badge (draw or describe it) that represents your learning from this chapter. Include symbols or words for at least two concepts (e.g., a Diwali lamp for traditions, a handshake for etiquette). Use the space below or a separate paper if needed.
