Worksheet for Chapter 7: Migration, Refugees, and Cultural Adaptation

Objective: To help students understand the reasons for migration, the challenges faced by refugees, the process of cultural adaptation, and actionable ways to support newcomers through interactive tasks, reflection, and creative engagement.

Part 1: Reasons for Migration – Sorting the Push and Pull

Instructions: Migration happens for various reasons, as discussed in the chapter. Below are five scenarios. Categorize each as an Economic, Political, or Environmental factor driving migration. Then, write a one-sentence explanation for why this factor pushes someone to move. Use examples from the chapter to guide you.

Scenario	Factor (Economic/Political/Environmental)	Explanation (Why does this push migration?)
• 1. A family leaves their village due to a severe drought destroying crops.
• 2. A student moves abroad for a better university education.
• 3. A group flees their country due to a civil war and persecution.
• 4. Workers relocate to a city for higher-paying jobs in construction.
• 5. Coastal residents move inland as rising sea levels flood their homes.

Scenario

Factor (Economic/Political/Environmental)

Explanation (Why does this push migration?)

- 1. A family leaves their village due to a severe drought destroying crops.
- 2. A student moves abroad for a better university education.
- 3. A group flees their country due to a civil war and persecution.
- 4. Workers relocate to a city for higher-paying jobs in construction.
- 5. Coastal residents move inland as rising sea levels flood their homes.

Quick Question: Which migration reason from the chapter (or above) do you think affects the most people globally, and why? (2-3 sentences)

Part 2: Refugee Realities – Stepping Into Their Shoes

Instructions: Refugees face unique struggles, as outlined in the chapter. Choose one challenge (Dangerous Journeys, Life in Camps, or Emotional Toll) and write a short paragraph (4-5 sentences) describing what it entails, using an example from the chapter (e.g., Syrian refugees crossing the Mediterranean or Rohingya in camps). Then, answer the follow-up question.

Chosen Challenge: _____ Paragraph:

Follow-Up Question: How does learning about this refugee challenge change the way you view news stories or classmates who might have similar experiences? (2-3 sentences)

Part 3: Cultural Adaptation – Balancing Two Worlds

Instructions: Immigrants often adapt to new cultures while trying to maintain their heritage, as discussed in the chapter. Imagine a teen from India moving to the U.S. or Canada. List two ways they might adapt to the new culture and two ways they might preserve their Indian heritage. Then, suggest one challenge they could face in this process.

Adaptation (Fitting into the new culture):

Preserving Heritage (Holding onto Indian roots):

One Challenge: (e.g., language barriers or feeling torn between cultures)

Reflection: Have you or someone you know ever had to adapt to a new place or group? How did it feel to balance “fitting in” with staying true to yourself? (2-3 sentences)

Part 4: Supporting Newcomers – Be an Ally

Instructions: The chapter emphasizes ways teens can help migrants or refugees feel included. Pick one idea from the chapter (e.g., being welcoming, learning about their culture, or standing against bullying) and create a mini “action plan” with two specific steps you could take in your school or community. Then, answer the reflection question.

Chosen Idea: _____ Action Plan:

- Step 1: (What will you do, and when?)
- Step 2: (How will you involve others or make an impact?)

Reflection: Why do you think small actions like these can make a big difference for a newcomer? (2-3 sentences)

Part 5: Creative Task – “Migration Storyboard”

Instructions: Create a short storyboard (or describe it in words) for a 3-panel comic or video clip about a migration story inspired by the chapter. It could be about a refugee fleeing conflict (like Syrians), a family moving for economic reasons (like Indian workers), or a teen adapting to a new culture. Include a key challenge and a moment of hope or support. Use the space below for your sketch or description. Then, write a short title for your story.

Storyboard Sketch or Description:

- Panel 1: (Setting or start of journey)
- Panel 2: (A challenge faced)
- Panel 3: (A moment of hope or support)

Title of Story: _____

Part 6: Personal Reflection – Migration in My World

Instructions: Think about migration stories in your own life or community. Maybe a family member moved for work, or a classmate is a newcomer. Write a short reflection (4-5 sentences) on how migration has touched your life or someone you know. Connect it to one idea from the chapter (e.g., a reason for migration or a way to support newcomers). If you don't have a personal story, imagine how you'd welcome a migrant peer based on the chapter.
