Worksheet: Chapter 10 - Building a Cyber-Safe Future

Purpose: To reinforce key concepts from Chapter 10 through a concise, engaging worksheet that encourages practical application and personal commitment, tailored for teen learners.

Part 1: Cyber Habit Checklist (5 minutes)

Instructions: Check off which digital safety habits from Chapter 10 you already do. For any you don't, write one sentence about how you'll start this week. Be specific!

- Use strong, unique passwords for every account. If not, how will you start? _____
- Have two-factor authentication (2FA) on my main apps. If not, how will you start? _____
- Think before clicking links or sharing personal info. If not, how will you start? _____
- Update my apps and devices regularly. If not, how will you start? _____

Part 2: Spot the New Threat (5 minutes)

Instructions: Read the mini-scenario below. Circle whether it's a potential new cyber threat, then write 1-2 sentences on how you'd stay updated or handle it based on Chapter 10. Scenario: A viral TikTok challenge asks you to post your birthdate and favorite game for a "personalized filter," and tons of friends are doing it.

- Is this a potential threat? (Yes / No) Your Response: _____

Part 3: Teach & Inspire (5 minutes)

Instructions: Think of one person (friend, sibling, parent, etc.) you could teach a cyber safety tip to. Write down who they are and one specific tip from Chapter 10 you'd share with them. Explain why you picked that tip for them in 1-2 sentences.

- Who I'll Teach: _____
- Tip I'll Share: _____
- Why This Tip for Them: _____

Part 4: Cyber Career Curiosity (5 minutes)

Instructions: Pick one cyber security career from Chapter 10 (like ethical hacker, cyber security analyst, or digital forensics investigator). Write 1-2 sentences about why it sounds interesting to you and one small step you could take this month to learn more about it (e.g., watch a video, talk to a teacher).

- Career I'm Curious About: _____
- Why It Interests Me: _____

- My Next Step to Learn More: _____
