

Chapter 1

MCQs

Question 1

What is the best definition of data?

- A) A type of computer software
- B) Information or facts collected to understand something
- C) A set of opinions without evidence
- D) A tool used only by scientists

Correct Answer: B)

Information or facts collected to understand something

Question 2

Which of the following is an example of qualitative data?

- A) The temperature today is 28°C.
- B) There are 25 students in the classroom.
- C) The movie was incredibly funny.
- D) I ran 5 kilometres this morning.

Correct Answer: C)

The movie was incredibly funny.

Question 3

Why is data literacy important in today's world?

- ☐ A) It helps you learn how to code.
- ☐ B) It allows you to understand and question information to make better decisions.
- ☐ C) It is only useful for getting high grades in school.
- ☐ D) It teaches you how to use social media.

Correct Answer: B)

It allows you to understand and question information to make better decisions.

Question 4

What is an example of a data-driven decision in the real world?

- ☐ A) Guessing what to wear without checking the weather.
- ☐ B) Using sports statistics to plan a game strategy.
- ☐ C) Choosing a movie based on a friend's opinion alone.
- ☐ D) Deciding to study without looking at test scores.

Correct Answer: B)

Using sports statistics to plan a game strategy.

Question 5

What is a key concern related to data in the digital age?

- ☐ A) Data is too difficult to collect.
- ☐ B) Data is only used by big companies.
- ☐ C) Privacy issues arise from sharing personal information online.
- ☐ D) Data cannot be used to solve real-world problems.

Correct Answer: C)

Privacy issues arise from sharing personal information online.

Generated for Skill Lab Courses - TopTeens

Total Questions: 5