Worksheet: Chapter 2 - Basics of Storytelling

Course: Digital Content Creation & Storytelling Skills for High Schoolers Objective: Reflect on and apply key storytelling concepts from Chapter 2 to develop engaging content ideas.

Part 1: Quick Recall (Answer in 1-2 sentences)

- What Makes a Story? Pick one element of a good story (Plot, Characters, Conflict, or Resolution) and explain why it's important for digital content.
- Hook It Up! Write a short hook (a question, bold statement, or teaser) for a video about a funny school moment.

Part 2: Creative Application

- Structure Your Story Think of a recent event in your life (like a game, trip, or fail). Briefly outline how you'd tell it using the Three-Act Structure (Setup, Confrontation, Resolution).
 - Setup: _____
 - Confrontation: _____
 - Resolution: _____
- Emotional Connection Choose an emotion (e.g., excitement, embarrassment) from that event. How would you show this emotion in your content (visuals, music, or words)?

Reflection: What's one storytelling tip from this chapter you're most excited to try in your next piece of content, and why?
