

Chapter 3

MCQs

Question 1

What is the main advantage of using a smartphone for photography compared to a DSLR camera?

- ☐ A) Smartphones always produce higher quality images than DSLRs
- ☐ B) Smartphones are more expensive but have better lenses
- ☐ C) Smartphones are portable, always with you, and have easy-to-use features like portrait mode
- ☐ D) Smartphones allow for more manual control over settings than DSLRs

Correct Answer: C)

Smartphones are portable, always with you, and have easy-to-use features like portrait mode

Question 2

What does the "Rule of Thirds" composition technique suggest for creating a balanced photo?

- ☐ A) Place the subject in the exact center of the frame
- ☐ B) Place the subject along the lines or intersections of an imaginary 3x3 grid
- ☐ C) Always shoot from a low angle to make the subject look bigger
- ☐ D) Fill the entire frame with the subject to avoid empty space

Correct Answer: B)

Place the subject along the lines or intersections of an imaginary 3x3 grid

Question 3

When is the best time to shoot photos using natural light for a warm, flattering glow?

- ☐ A) Midday when the sun is directly overhead
- ☐ B) Late at night using moonlight
- ☐ C) During golden hour, just after sunrise or before sunset
- ☐ D) On a completely overcast day with no visible sun

Correct Answer: C)

During golden hour, just after sunrise or before sunset

Question 4

Which photo editing app is best suited for adding text and graphics to images, such as for YouTube thumbnails or Instagram Stories?

- ☐ A) Lightroom

Correct Answer: C)

Canva

Question 5

Why is creating a consistent visual style important for your digital content?

- ☐ A) It makes your content look boring and predictable
- ☐ B) It helps your content become instantly recognizable to followers and builds your brand identity
- ☐ C) It ensures all your photos are taken with the same camera
- ☐ D) It prevents you from experimenting with new photography techniques

Correct Answer: B)

It helps your content become instantly recognizable to followers and builds your brand identity