

Chapter 7

MCQs

Question 1

What is the primary definition of conflict as discussed in the chapter?

- ☐ A) A physical fight between two or more people
 - ☐ B) A disagreement or clash between differing opinions, needs, or goals
 - ☐ C) A situation where someone always wins and another loses
 - ☐ D) An unnatural occurrence that should be avoided at all costs
- Correct Answer: B) A disagreement or clash between differing opinions, needs, or goals

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 2

Why is conflict considered a natural part of relationships according to the chapter?

- ☐ A) It shows that people don't care about each other
 - ☐ B) It happens because no two people will always have the same views or needs
 - ☐ C) It only occurs in unhealthy relationships
 - ☐ D) It prevents relationships from growing stronger
- Correct Answer: B) It happens because no two people will always have the same views or needs

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 3

Which of the following is an example of an internal conflict as described in the chapter?

- A) Arguing with a friend over weekend plans
- B) Disagreeing with parents about curfew rules
- C) Feeling torn between joining a new club or staying with a sports team
- D) Having a dispute in a group chat over a misinterpreted commentCorrect Answer:C) Feeling torn between joining a new club or staying with a sports team

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 4

What is a common cause of conflict among teens highlighted in the chapter?

- A) Lack of interest in social activities
- B) Miscommunication, especially over text or social media
- C) Always agreeing with peers and family
- D) Avoiding emotional discussionsCorrect Answer:B) Miscommunication, especially over text or social media

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 5

How can emotions escalate a conflict, based on the chapter's discussion?

- A) By encouraging calm and thoughtful responses
- B) By causing someone to use "I" statements to express feelings
- C) By leading to impulsive reactions like blaming or yelling
- D) By helping both parties understand each other's perspectivesCorrect Answer:C) By leading to impulsive reactions like blaming or yelling

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 6

What is an effective way to recognize and manage emotional triggers during a disagreement, according to the chapter?

- A) Ignoring your feelings to avoid making the situation worse
- B) Reflecting on past conflicts to identify patterns that provoke strong emotions
- C) Immediately confronting the other person about their behavior
- D) Pretending the trigger doesn't exist to keep the peaceCorrect Answer:B) Reflecting on past conflicts to identify patterns that provoke strong emotions

Note: No correct answer specified for this question