Worksheet for Chapter 11: Showcasing Your Hustle - Final Project

Purpose: This worksheet is designed to help you apply the concepts from Chapter 11 to your own side hustle. Work through each section to create a portfolio, practice pitching, plan a showcase, reflect on your learning, and set future goals. Let's make your hustle shine!

Part 1: Creating a Portfolio of Your Work

Objective: Document your side hustle journey to showcase your progress and build credibility. Task: Think about your hustle and list or sketch elements to include in your portfolio. Fill in the sections below to start building it. If you don't have a hustle yet, imagine one and answer based on that.

- Visuals (Photos/Videos): What can you show? (e.g., "Pics of my custom bracelets" or "Video of me tutoring a student")
- Proof of Success: What evidence do you have? (e.g., "A 5-star review" or "Sold 10 items last month")
- My Story: Write 2-3 sentences about why you started your hustle and what it means to you.

Reflection Question: How do you think a portfolio could help you impress customers or others? Write 1-2 sentences.

Part 2: Pitching Your Idea to Others

Objective: Practice presenting your hustle in a clear, exciting way to potential customers or supporters. Task: Write a short "30-Second Pitch Script" for your hustle using the structure below. Then, practice saying it out loud to a friend or family member.

- Problem: What issue does your hustle solve? (e.g., "Teens need affordable snacks.")
- Solution: How does your hustle fix it? (e.g., "My homemade cookies are tasty and just $2!")
- Personal Hook: Why are you the best for this? (e.g., "I'm a teen baker who gets what you like!")

Fun Challenge: Turn one line of your pitch into a catchy rhyme or slogan (e.g., "Cookies so sweet, can't be beat!"). Write it below.

Reflection Question: What felt easy or hard about writing your pitch, and how can you improve it? Write 1-2 sentences.

Part 3: Organizing a Teen Entrepreneur Fair

Objective: Plan a small event to showcase your hustle with other teen hustlers. Task: Imagine you're organizing a "Teen Hustle Fair" at school or in your community. Answer the questions below to brainstorm how it could work.

- Location & Time: Where and when would you host it? (e.g., "School gym during lunch next month")

- Who's Involved: Name 2-3 people (friends or classmates) you'd ask to join or help. What would their roles be? (e.g., "Mia - Marketing, Jay - Setup")
- Your Booth: What would you display or sell at your booth? How would you make it stand out? (e.g., "Bright signs and free samples")

Creative Challenge: Sketch or describe a simple "Fair Flyer" to promote the event. Include a fun title and one detail (like date or theme). [Space for Sketch or Description]

Reflection Question: How could a fair help you grow your hustle or connect with others? Write 1-2 sentences.

Part 4: Reflecting on Your Learning

Objective: Look back on this course to recognize your growth and achievements as a teen entrepreneur. Task: Answer the reflection prompts below to think about your journey. Be honest and specific!

- Skill Gained: What's one new skill you've learned from this course? (e.g., "Marketing on social media")
- Challenge Overcome: What was hard, and how did you handle it? (e.g., "I was shy, but I pitched anyway")
- Proud Moment: What's one thing you're most proud of from your hustle or this course?

Fun Challenge: List your "Top 3 Hustle Highlights" from this course (like "Made my first sale!"). Add an emoji for each to celebrate!

- _____ 😊
- _____
- _____

Reflection Question: How do you feel different now compared to when you started this course? Write 1-2 sentences.

Part 5: Next Steps: Planning Beyond the Course

Objective: Set a goal for the next 6 months to keep your hustle momentum going. Task: Write a SMART goal (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, Time-bound) for your hustle or a new idea. Then, list 3 small steps to reach it.

- My 6-Month Goal: (e.g., "Sell 30 handmade items by [date] to save for a new phone")
- Steps to Get There:

Creative Challenge: Draw or describe a "Hustle Roadmap" showing your starting point (now) and your 6-month goal as the endpoint. Add one mini-goal as a landmark on the path. [Space for Sketch or Description] Reflection Question: Why is this 6-month goal important to you, and how will it keep you motivated? Write 1-2 sentences.

Part 6: Your Hustle Showcase Plan (Wrap-Up)

Objective: Summarize your plan to showcase your hustle and celebrate your journey. Task: Write a short "Hustle Showcase Plan" (3-5 sentences) combining ideas from this chapter. Mention at least one idea from each section (portfolio, pitch, fair, reflection, next steps).

Bonus: Design a "Hustle Victory Badge" for yourself. Write or sketch a badge with your hustle name and a symbol (like a star or dollar sign) to represent completing this course. [Space for Sketch or Description]

Final Reflection Question for Teens: What's one idea or lesson from Chapter 11 that you're most excited to use for your hustle, and why? Write 1-2 sentences.
