Worksheet for Chapter 8: Financial Literacy for Young Entrepreneurs

Instructions: Answer the questions and complete the activities below. Use a notebook, digital doc, or printout to record your responses. Discuss your answers with a friend, family member, or teacher for extra insights. Let's get started!

Part 1: Understanding Money Basics (10 minutes)

Activity: Calculate Your Hustle Profit Imagine you've started a side hustle selling custom bookmarks online. Use the details below to calculate your profit. Show your work!

- Income: You sold 10 bookmarks at ₹50 each. Total Income = ?
- Expenses: Materials cost ₹200, and packaging cost ₹50. Total Expenses = ?
- Profit: Income - Expenses = ?

Reflection Question: Why is knowing your profit important for your hustle? Write 1-2 sentences.

Part 2: Saving and Reinvesting in Your Hustle (10 minutes)

Activity: Split Your Earnings Pretend you earned ₹1,000 (about $12) this month from your hustle. Using the 50-30-20 Rule (save 50%, spend 30%, reinvest 20%), decide how much goes to each category. Fill in the blanks:

- Save (50%): ₹ _____ (for what personal goal?)
- Spend (30%): ₹ _____ (on what fun thing?)
- Reinvest (20%): ₹ _____ (how will you use it to grow your hustle?)

Reflection Question: What's one challenge you might face in sticking to this split, and how could you overcome it? Write 1-2 sentences.

Part 3: Tracking Your Finances (5 minutes)

Activity: Mini Money Tracker Create a simple tracker for one week of an imaginary hustle (e.g., tutoring or selling crafts). Use the table below to log at least 3 transactions (real or made-up).

Date	Income (₹)	Expenses (₹)	Notes (What was it for?)
Example: 12-Aug	300	0	Sold 2 crafts
• 1.

• 2.
• 3.
Total Income: ₹ _____	Total Expenses: ₹ _____	Profit: ₹ _____

Date

Income (₹)

Expenses (₹)

Notes (What was it for?)

Example: 12-Aug

300

Sold 2 crafts

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Total Income: ₹ _____

Total Expenses: ₹ _____

Profit: ₹ _____

Reflection Question: Which tracking method (notebook, app, or spreadsheet) would you prefer, and why? Write 1-2 sentences.

Part 4: Dealing with Losses or Setbacks (5 minutes)

Activity: Setback Survival Plan Imagine you spent ₹500 (about $6) on supplies for a product, but no one bought it, resulting in a loss. Write a quick 3-step plan to bounce back:

- How would you stay calm or deal with frustration?
- What's one lesson you'd learn from this setback?
- What's one next step to recover or adjust your hustle?

Reflection Question: How can setbacks make you a better entrepreneur in the long run? Write 1-2 sentences.

Part 5: Taxes and Legal Basics for Teens (India Focus) (5 minutes)

Activity: True or False Quick Check Read each statement and mark it as True or False based on what you learned.

- In India, most teen hustles earning under ₹2.5 lakh yearly don't need to pay income tax. (____)
- Teens under 18 can sign legal contracts for their hustle without parental help. (____)
- It's safe to share bank details with any customer who asks for them. (____)

Reflection Question: Why is it important to involve a parent or guardian in legal or payment matters for your hustle? Write 1-2 sentences.

Bonus Fun Challenge: Dream Hustle Budget (5 minutes)

Activity: Plan Your Dream Hustle's First Week Pick a dream hustle (e.g., starting a YouTube channel, baking cookies, or selling art). Create a mini-budget for the first week:

- Expected Income: ₹ _____ (How much do you hope to earn, and from what?)
- Expected Expenses: ₹ _____ (What will you spend on, like supplies or tools?)
- Expected Profit: ₹ _____ (Income - Expenses)
- Fun Twist: Draw a small doodle or emoji next to your hustle idea to make this plan pop! (Leave space for drawing or describe it if digital)

Wrap-Up: Self-Assessment

Rate Yourself: On a scale of 1 to 5, how confident are you in managing money for a hustle after completing this worksheet? (1 = Not confident, 5 = Super confident) Circle one: 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5

One Key Takeaway: Write one big lesson or tip from this chapter that you'll use in your real or future hustle. (1 sentence)

Next Step: Share one part of this worksheet (like your profit calc or survival plan) with a friend or family member. Ask for their feedback or ideas to make your hustle even better!
