Please complete all activities in this worksheet. Write your answers in the spaces provided or on separate sheets if needed.

Worksheet for Chapter 2: Setting Goals and Vision for Events

Purpose: This worksheet is designed to help you apply the concepts from Chapter 2 by working through activities related to defining the purpose of an event, identifying your target audience, creating a vision board, and setting SMART goals. Complete each section thoughtfully to build a strong foundation for planning your own event. Use extra paper or a digital document if you need more space.

Estimated Completion Time: 45-60 minutes

Part 1: Defining the Purpose of Your Event

Objective: Understand the “why” behind your event to guide your planning decisions.

- Brainstorm an Event Idea: Think of an event you’d like to plan (e.g., a school dance, fundraiser, or cultural fair). Write down the event name and a brief description.
 - Event Name: _____
 - Description: _____
- Identify the Purpose: What do you want to achieve with this event? Choose one main purpose (e.g., fundraising, building school spirit, celebrating diversity, educating/inspiring) and explain why it matters in 2-3 sentences.
 - Main Purpose: _____
 - Why It Matters: _____

Part 2: Identifying Your Target Audience

Objective: Determine who your event is for and what they need to ensure they attend and enjoy it.

- Define Your Audience: Who is the primary group you’re planning this event for (e.g., students, parents, community, or a mix)? Write their name and a short description of who they are.
 - Target Audience: _____
 - Description (age, interests, etc.): _____
- Audience Needs: List 4 specific things your target audience would want or need from your event (e.g., specific music, timing, food, activities, or promotion methods).

Part 3: Creating a Vision Board

Objective: Visualize the theme, vibe, and goals of your event to keep your team inspired and aligned.

- Choose a Theme: What's the overall vibe or concept for your event (e.g., "Winter Wonderland," "Superhero Fun Run," "Glow-in-the-Dark Party")? Write it down and explain why it fits your purpose in 1-2 sentences.
 - Theme: _____
 - Why It Fits: _____
- Vision Board Elements: List or sketch 4 elements you'd include on a vision board for this event (e.g., colors, images, textures, words, or phrases that capture the mood).

Optional Creative Task: If you have time, create a mini vision board on a separate piece of paper or digitally using images, drawings, or clippings. Attach it or describe it here.

Part 4: SMART Goals for Events

Objective: Set a clear, actionable goal for your event using the SMART framework (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, Time-bound).

- Write a SMART Goal: Create one SMART goal for your event. Make sure it includes all 5 components. Use the example from the chapter as a guide if needed.
 - SMART Goal: _____
 - Breakdown (briefly note how it meets each SMART criterion):
 - Specific: _____
 - Measurable: _____
 - Achievable: _____
 - Relevant: _____
 - Time-bound: _____

Part 5: Reflection and Dream Event Starter

Objective: Tie together all concepts from the chapter and reflect on your learning to prepare for real event planning.

- Dream Event Summary: Combine your work from Parts 1-4 to summarize your event idea. Fill in the details below.
 - Event Name: _____

- Purpose: _____
- Target Audience & 2 Specific Needs: _____
- Vision Board Theme & 2 Key Elements: _____
- SMART Goal: _____

- Reflection Questions: Answer these in 2-3 sentences each to think about what you've learned.
 - What was the most helpful part of this chapter for planning an event, and why?
 - What might be challenging when setting goals or creating a vision for a real event, and how could you overcome it?

Bonus Challenge (Optional)

Overcoming Obstacles: Think of one potential problem you might face while planning your event (e.g., team disagreements, low attendance, unrealistic goals). Write it down and suggest a solution based on the “Real Talk for Teens” section of the chapter.

- Potential Problem: _____
- Solution: _____

Note for Students: Great job completing this worksheet! Keep it as a reference for when you plan a real event—it's like a blueprint for success. Share your ideas with a friend, teacher, or club advisor to get feedback, and revisit your answers as you grow your event planning skills. In the next chapter, we'll cover budgets and timelines, so save this to build on later!
