Worksheet for Chapter 3: Building a Winning Team

Course: Event Planning & Organizational Skills for High Schoolers

Purpose: This worksheet is designed to help you apply the concepts from Chapter 3 by working through activities related to assigning roles, communicating effectively, resolving conflicts, and motivating your team. Complete each section thoughtfully to build skills for creating a strong event planning team. Use extra paper or a digital document if you need more space.

Part 1: Roles and Responsibilities

Objective: Learn how to assign tasks based on team members' strengths to ensure an organized and efficient event planning process.

- Event Name: _____
- Task 1: _____
- Task 2: _____
- Task 3: _____

Part 3: Conflict Resolution in Teams

Objective: Develop skills to handle disagreements or stress within your team to keep progress on track.

- Scenario Practice: Read this scenario: Two team members disagree on the theme for your event—one wants a “Retro 80s Night,” and the other wants a “Tropical Beach Party.” They’re frustrated, and it’s slowing down planning. Using the conflict resolution steps from the chapter (stay calm, hear both sides, find common ground, compromise/decide, move forward), write how you’d solve this.
 - Step 1 (Stay Calm): How would you start the conversation?
 - Step 2 (Hear Both Sides): What question would you ask each person?
 - Step 3 (Find Common Ground): What might they both agree on?
 - Step 4 (Compromise/Decide): Suggest a solution or decision method (e.g., vote, blend ideas).
 - Step 5 (Move Forward): How would you get the team back to work?

Part 4: Motivating Your Crew

Objective: Explore ways to keep your team energized and excited, even during stressful planning moments.

- Appreciation Plan: Think of a way to thank each of your 5 imaginary (or real) team members from Part 1 for their specific contributions. Write a short note or idea for each (e.g., a shout-out in a group chat, a small treat).
