Chapter 7: Marketing and Promotion Worksheet

Instructions: Complete this worksheet by filling in all sections. Feel free to add doodles or extra ideas in the margins. Share your completed worksheet with a classmate, teacher, or event planning group for feedback. If you're working on a real event, use these ideas to start promoting! Let's make your event unforgettable!

Part 1: Crafting an Event Brand Think of a school event you'd like to plan (e.g., a dance, talent show, or fundraiser). Create a unique brand identity for it by answering the following:

- Event Name: Come up with a catchy, memorable name for your event. (Example: "Neon Nights" for a glow-in-the-dark dance)
 - My Event Name:
- Logo Idea: Describe or sketch a simple logo for your event. What colors or symbols will you use? (Example: A snowflake for "Frost Fest")
 - Description/Sketch:
- Theme: What theme will tie your event together? (Example: "Sweet Safari" with jungle decor for a bake sale)
 - My Theme:
- Tagline: Write a short, punchy tagline to go with your event. (Example: "Light Up Your Night!" for Neon Nights)
 - My Tagline:

Part 2: Social Media Strategies for Teens Plan how you'll promote your event on social media platforms popular with teens. Fill in the details for at least two platforms below:

- Instagram Post Idea: Describe the image or video you'd post and write a caption with a hashtag. (Example: Image of glowing decorations, Caption: "Get ready for #NeonNights! Are you coming?")
 - Image/Video Description:
 - Caption & Hashtag:
- TikTok Video Idea: What kind of short video will you make? Will you use a trend or challenge? (Example: A dance challenge video with a popular sound, ending with "Join us at #BloomBoom!")
 - Video Concept:
- Snapchat Update Idea (Optional): What quick snap or story will you send to build hype? (Example: A countdown snap saying "3 days till #VictoryVibes!" with a funny filter)
 - Snap/Story Idea:

Part 3: Traditional Promotion Methods Not everything is online! Plan one traditional method to promote your event in school.

- Flyer Design or Announcement Script: Choose one:
 - Flyer: Describe the design of a poster or flyer (colors, images, key info). Where will you hang it in school? (Example: Bright yellow flyer with a brain image for “Brain Blast,” hung in the cafeteria)
 - Design & Location:
 - Announcement: Write a short 30-second script for a school announcement. Make it exciting! (Example: “Don’t miss Neon Nights, the glow-in-the-dark dance of the year, this Friday at 6 PM in the gym!”)
 - Script:
- Word-of-Mouth Plan: How will you personally tell people about your event? Which groups or friends will you target? (Example: Tell the basketball team at practice and ask them to spread the word)
 - My Plan:

Part 4: Engaging Your Audience Early Build excitement before the event day by planning early engagement tactics.

- Teaser Idea: What mysterious hint or content will you share to spark curiosity? (Example: Post a black image with “Light up your night soon...” for Neon Nights)
 - My Teaser:
- Countdown Plan: Write a short message for Day 5 and Day 1 of a countdown to your event. (Example: Day 5: “5 days till #NeonNights—get hyped!” Day 1: “Tomorrow’s the day! See you at #NeonNights!”)
 - Day 5 Message:
 - Day 1 Message:
- Early-Bird Offer (Optional): If your event has tickets, what discount or perk will you offer for early buyers? (Example: ₹50 tickets if bought early, ₹70 at the door, plus a free glow stick)
 - My Offer:

Part 5: Reflection and Creativity Challenge

- Reflection: Which promotion method from this chapter (branding, social media, traditional, or early engagement) do you think will work best for your school event? Why?
 - My Answer:
- Creativity Challenge: Pick one element from your plans above (like your logo, flyer, or social media post) and create a rough draft or sketch of it on a separate piece of paper or digitally. Describe what you made below.
 - Description of Creation:
