Chapter 8: Event Execution – The Big Day Worksheet

Instructions: Fill out all sections of this worksheet with your best ideas. Add doodles or extra notes in the margins if you're feeling creative. Share your completed worksheet with a friend, teacher, or event team for feedback. If you're planning a real event, use these plans to crush it on the big day! Let's make your event the one everyone remembers!

Part 1: Day-Before Checklist The day before your event is all about prep to avoid last-minute stress. Imagine you're planning a school event (pick one if you don't have a real one in mind). Create a mini checklist for the day before.

- Team Roles Confirmation: List at least three roles for your event team and how you'll confirm they're ready (e.g., text, call, group chat).
 - Role 1 & Confirmation Plan:
 - Role 2 & Confirmation Plan:
 - Role 3 & Confirmation Plan:
- Vendor or Supplier Check: If your event has food, rentals, or other services, who will you confirm with, and what details will you double-check (e.g., time, location)? If no vendors, write a backup plan for a key item like snacks or decorations.
 - My Plan:
- Emergency Kit Idea: List five items you'd pack in an "Event Superhero Kit" for unexpected issues. Why did you choose each?
 - Item 1 & Reason:
 - Item 2 & Reason:
 - Item 3 & Reason:

Part 2: Managing the Event Schedule Keeping things on time is key to a smooth event. Let's plan a timeline and backup ideas.

- Mini Timeline: Write a short schedule for your event with at least four key moments (e.g., start time, main activity, break, end). Include a start time for each.
 - Moment 1 & Time:

- Moment 2 & Time:
- Moment 3 & Time:
- Moment 4 & Time:
- Delay Backup Plan: If one activity runs late (like a performer not showing up), what's a fun way to fill the gap and keep the crowd hyped? (Example: Play a TikTok trend song and start a dance-off.)
 - My Idea:

Part 3: Problem-Solving on the Spot Things don't always go as planned, but you've got this! Brainstorm solutions for common event-day hiccups.

- Tech Trouble Fix: If the sound system or projector fails during your event, what's your quick fix or backup activity to keep things rolling?
 - My Solution:
- Low Turnout Plan: If only half the expected crowd shows up, how will you make the event still feel awesome for those who came? (Example: Turn it into a "VIP exclusive" vibe with extra attention.)
 - My Plan:
- Weather Woes (Optional): If your event is outdoors and it starts raining, what's your "Plan B" to keep the fun going? If your event is indoors, pick another unexpected issue (like a power outage) and solve it.
 - Issue & Solution:

Part 4: Ensuring Guest Satisfaction Happy attendees = epic event! Plan ways to make your guests feel welcome and engaged.

- Welcome Vibe: How will you greet guests when they arrive to set a positive tone? (Example: Hand out glow sticks with a big "Welcome to Neon Nights!")
 - My Idea:
- Engagement Activity: Plan one interactive moment during the event to keep energy high (e.g., a quick contest, photo booth, or audience poll).
 - My Activity:
- Feedback Fun: How will you get feedback from guests in a casual, teen-friendly way? (Example: Hand out "Vibe Check" cards with candy for filling them out.)
 - My Plan:

Part 5: Reflection and Creativity Challenge

- Reflection: Which part of event execution (checklist, schedule, problem-solving, or guest satisfaction) do you think is most important for your event's success? Why?
 - My Answer:
- Creativity Challenge: Pick one element from above (like your welcome idea, timeline, or emergency kit) and sketch or describe a visual for it on a separate paper or digitally. What did you create?
 - Description of Creation:

Bonus Fun Question: If you could have one celebrity or viral internet star show up on your event day to surprise everyone, who would it be, and what would they do? (Example: A TikTok dancer leading a flash mob at your dance.)

- My Dream Surprise:
