Resilience Rockstar Worksheet: Build Your Superpower for High School and Beyond!

Hey, high school warriors! Ready to level up your resilience game? This worksheet is your personal training ground to become a bounce-back legend. Based on Chapter 7: Building Resilience, you'll tackle fun activities, reflect on real-life scenarios, and build your own toolkit to crush life's challenges. Grab a pen, blast some hype music, and let's turn setbacks into comebacks!

Part 1: What's Your Resilience Avatar? (Section 1: What Is Resilience?)

Resilience is your superpower to bounce back from tough stuff. Let's make it epic by designing your own "Resilience Avatar"!

- Draw or Describe: Imagine resilience as a character from a video game or anime. Is it a ninja, a phoenix, or a warrior? Sketch it below (or describe it if drawing's not your thing). (Space for drawing or writing)

- Name & Catchphrase: Give your avatar a cool name (like "Bounce-Back Beast") and a hype catchphrase (like "I'm unstoppable!"). Write them here: Name: _____ Catchphrase: _____

- Quick Reflection: How can picturing this avatar help you when life gets tough (e.g., a bad grade or friend drama)? Write 1-2 sentences.

Part 2: Problem-Solving Like a Pro (Section 2: Problem-Solving Skills)

Life throws curveballs, but you've got the skills to hit back! Practice problem-solving with a real teen scenario.

- Scenario: You've got a big science project due tomorrow, but your laptop crashes, and you can't access your work. You're freaking out! Use the 5-step process to solve this:

- Chill & Define the Problem: What's the specific issue?
- Brainstorm Solutions: List 3 possible fixes, even wild ones!
 - Idea 1: _____
 - Idea 2: _____
 - Idea 3: _____
- Pick the Best Option: Which idea will you try first and why?
- Take Action: What's one small step to start right now?
- Check Results: If it doesn't work, what's your backup plan?
- Fun Bonus – Playlist Power-Up: Pick 1-2 songs for a "Problem-Solver Playlist" to hype you up while tackling issues. Write them here:
 - Song 1: _____
 - Song 2: _____

Part 3: Growth Mindset Challenge (Section 3: Growth Mindset)

Turn setbacks into setups for success by training your brain for growth! Let's flip negative thoughts and learn from fails.

- Mindset Flip Activity: Rewrite these fixed mindset thoughts into growth mindset ones by adding "yet" or focusing on effort.
 - "I'm terrible at math." New Thought: _____
 - "I'll never be good at sports." New Thought: _____
- Mistake to Lesson: Think of a recent setback (like a bad test score or argument). Write it down, then list 1 thing you learned from it for your "Mistake Journal." Setback: _____ Lesson Learned: _____
- Meme Inspiration: Describe or sketch a "Growth Mindset Meme" you'd save as your phone wallpaper to stay motivated. What's the vibe or quote? (e.g., "Failure? Just a plot twist!")

Part 4: Build Your Support Squad (Section 4: Building a Support Network)

You're not in this alone! Map out your hype squad and plan how to connect with them.

- Squad Map: List 3-5 people in your support network. Next to each, write their "superhero codename" based on how they help (e.g., "Captain Encourager" for a cheerleader friend) and their role (e.g., advice, laughs).
 - Name: _____ Codename: _____ Role: _____
 - Name: _____ Codename: _____ Role: _____
 - Name: _____ Codename: _____ Role: _____
 - Name: _____ Codename: _____ Role: _____
 - Name: _____ Codename: _____ Role: _____
- Connection Plan: Pick one person from your squad. How will you reach out to them this week (e.g., text a meme, ask to hang out)? Write your plan:
- Gratitude Moment: Write a quick "Thanks for being there" message you could send to someone in your squad. Keep it short and real!

Part 5: Resilience Victory Dance & Final Pep Talk

You've crushed this worksheet, Rockstar! Time to celebrate and lock in your resilience vibes.

- Victory Dance Pick: Choose a hype song for your mini victory dance (30 seconds of pure celebration!). Write it here: Song: _____

- Your Resilience Promise: Write 1 sentence about how you'll use one skill from this chapter (like problem-solving or growth mindset) the next time life gets tough. Promise: _____
- Hype Yourself Up: Look in a mirror (or just imagine it) and say your Resilience Avatar's catchphrase out loud. How does it feel to own your strength? Jot down 1-2 words about your vibe right now (e.g., "unstoppable," "pumped"). Vibe: _____

Wrap-Up: You're Unstoppable!

Congrats, Resilience Rockstar! You've just built your superpower toolkit for high school and beyond. Keep this worksheet handy—add to it, revisit it, or share ideas with your squad. Remember: life's gonna throw shade, but with resilience, you're turning every challenge into a comeback story. Keep bouncing back, keep growing, and keep owning your journey like the legend you are!
