Worksheet for Chapter 1: Introduction to Interviews and Professional Etiquette

Instructions: Complete this worksheet to help you understand and apply the concepts from Chapter 1. Take your time to think about each question or activity. You can write your answers below or discuss them with a classmate, teacher, or family member. This worksheet is designed to be easy and engaging, helping you build a strong foundation for the rest of the course.

Part 1: Personal Reflection (Short Answers)

Answer the following questions in 2-3 sentences each. Be honest and thoughtful!

- Why do you think interview skills matter for someone your age?
- What is one example of professional etiquette you can practice at school or home this week? How will you do it?

Part 2: Goal Setting (Action Plan)

Set one personal goal for this course based on what you learned in Chapter 1. Use the steps provided to make it clear and achievable.

- My Goal: (Example: "I want to improve my eye contact when speaking to others.")
- Why It Matters to Me: (Example: "It will help me seem more confident in interviews.")
- How I'll Measure It: (Example: "I'll practice with a friend and aim to maintain eye contact for 5 seconds during a conversation.")
- First Small Step I'll Take This Week: (Example: "I'll practice with my sibling during dinner.")

Part 3: Fun Activity (Creative Task)

Politeness Experiment: For the next 2 days, say "please" and "thank you" every time you ask for or receive something, even small things like a pencil or help with homework. After 2 days, answer the questions below.

- Did people react differently to you when you were extra polite? If yes, how?
- How did being polite make you feel about yourself?

Part 4: Quick Challenge (Optional Bonus)

Mini Role-Play: Pair up with a friend or family member. Pretend you're at a job interview for a part-time role at a local store. Take turns being the interviewer and the candidate. After the role-play, write down one thing you did well and one thing you want to improve.

- What I Did Well: _____
- What I Want to Improve: _____

Completion Note: Great job finishing this worksheet! Keep it handy as a reminder of your thoughts and goals. Share your answers or role-play experiences with a teacher or classmate if you'd like feedback. Remember, every small step you take now is building your confidence for big opportunities ahead!
