

Chapter 3

MCQs

Question 1

Speaking Clearly and Confidently What is the primary benefit of avoiding filler words like “um” or “like” when speaking in a professional setting?

- ☐ A) It makes you sound more casual and relatable.
- ☐ B) It helps you speak faster and finish quicker.
- ☐ C) It conveys confidence and clarity in your message.
- ☐ D) It ensures you don't need to pause while thinking.

Correct Answer: C)

It conveys confidence and clarity in your message.

Question 2

Active Listening in Conversations Which of the following is an example of active listening during a conversation?

- ☐ A) Checking your phone while someone is speaking to you.
- ☐ B) Interrupting the speaker to share your own opinion.
- ☐ C) Nodding and asking a follow-up question based on what was said.
- ☐ D) Thinking about what you'll say next while the other person talks.

Correct Answer: C)

Nodding and asking a follow-up question based on what was said.

Question 3

Handling Awkward or Tough Questions When faced with a difficult question during an interview, such as “What is your biggest weakness?”, what is the most effective strategy to respond?

- ☐ A) Avoid answering by changing the topic completely.
- ☐ B) Admit the weakness honestly and explain how you’re working to improve it.
- ☐ C) Say you don’t have any weaknesses to avoid seeming unprepared.
- ☐ D) Give a long, detailed story about an unrelated success.

Correct Answer: B)

Admit the weakness honestly and explain how you’re working to improve it.

Question 4

General Communication Skills Why is maintaining an appropriate pace while speaking important in a professional or academic setting?

- ☐ A) It allows you to finish your thoughts as quickly as possible.
- ☐ B) It ensures your audience can understand and follow your ideas clearly.
- ☐ C) It makes the conversation more exciting and dynamic.
- ☐ D) It prevents you from needing to think about your words.

Correct Answer: B)

It ensures your audience can understand and follow your ideas clearly.