Worksheet for Chapter 4: Preparing for an Interview

This worksheet is designed to guide high school students through practical exercises based on the content of Chapter 4. It includes reflective questions, planning activities, and self-assessment tasks to help internalize the material. Students are encouraged to complete this worksheet individually or discuss responses with peers, teachers, or family for additional feedback.

Part 1: Researching the Opportunity

Objective: Practice researching a specific opportunity to understand its values, goals, and requirements, and connect them to your own strengths and interests.

- Choose an Opportunity: Think of a real or hypothetical opportunity you're interested in (e.g., a part-time job at a local store, a college program, or a volunteer position). Write it down below.
 - Opportunity: _____
- Website Research: Visit the official website of the organization or program (or imagine doing so if it's hypothetical). Note down key information about their mission, values, or goals. If online access isn't available, brainstorm what you might find based on the type of opportunity.
 - Mission or Values: _____
 - Key Goals or Focus Areas: _____
 - How does this align with your interests or skills? _____
- Social Media or Additional Insights: Check their social media presence (Instagram, TikTok, etc.) or think about what recent updates or events they might share. Write down one interesting fact or recent activity you could mention in an interview to show you're engaged.
 - Interesting Fact or Update: _____
 - How could you connect this to your application? _____
- Role Requirements: Review the job description, program details, or volunteer expectations (real or imagined). List 2-3 skills or qualities they're looking for, and match them to something you bring to the table.
 - Required Skill/Quality 1: _____
 - How I Match: _____
 - Required Skill/Quality 2: _____
 - How I Match: _____
 - Required Skill/Quality 3: _____

- How I Match: _____

Part 2: Common Interview Questions for Teens

Objective: Prepare thoughtful, personalized answers to common interview questions to build confidence and clarity in expressing yourself.

- "Tell me about yourself." Write a short (1-2 minute) response introducing yourself, highlighting a strength or interest, and connecting it to the opportunity you chose in Part 1. Keep it concise and relevant.
 - My Answer: _____
- "What are your strengths?" Identify 1-2 strengths that fit the opportunity and provide a brief example or story to back each one up.
 - Strength 1: _____
 - Example/Story: _____
 - Strength 2: _____
 - Example/Story: _____
- "What is your biggest weakness?" Choose a real but non-critical weakness, and explain how you're working to improve it. Make sure it's appropriate for the opportunity.
 - Weakness: _____
 - How I'm Improving: _____
- "Why do you want this opportunity?" Write a response that shows genuine interest, using specific details from your research in Part 1 to connect your goals to what they offer.
 - My Answer: _____

Practice Tip: Read your answers out loud to yourself or a friend to test how they sound. Adjust if they feel too long, unclear, or unnatural.

Part 3: Creating a Personal Cheat Sheet

Objective: Organize key information about yourself into a mental guide to recall during an interview, ensuring you don't forget important points under pressure.

- Top Skills (3-5): List skills relevant to the opportunity or that generally describe your strengths. Include a quick note on how you've shown each one.
 - Skill 1: _____
(How shown: _____)
 - Skill 2: _____
(How shown: _____)
 - Skill 3: _____
(How shown: _____)
 - Skill 4: _____
(How shown: _____)
 - Skill 5: _____
(How shown: _____)
- Key Experiences (2-3): Write about specific moments that highlight your skills or character. Summarize each in 1-2 sentences.
 - Experience 1: _____

- Summary: _____
- Experience 2: _____
 - Summary: _____
- Experience 3: _____
 - Summary: _____
- Goals (1-2): Define why you're pursuing this opportunity and what you hope to gain or contribute.
 - Goal 1: _____
 - Goal 2: _____
- Fun Fact (1): Note a unique or lighthearted detail about yourself to make you memorable (keep it appropriate).
 - Fun Fact: _____

Review Tip: Look over your cheat sheet and highlight or star the points you think are most important to mention in an interview. Practice recalling them without looking at the paper to build mental familiarity.

Part 4: Self-Reflection and Action Plan

Objective: Reflect on your preparation process and set actionable steps to continue building interview skills.

- Reflection Questions: Answer the following to assess your progress.
 - What part of preparing for an interview (research, questions, cheat sheet) do I feel most confident about, and why?
 - What part do I find most challenging, and what can I do to improve in that area?
 - How do I feel about my ability to present myself in an interview after completing this worksheet?
- Action Plan: Set 2-3 specific goals to keep preparing for interviews. Examples include practicing with a friend, researching more opportunities, or refining your cheat sheet.
 - Goal 1: _____
 - How I'll Achieve It: _____
 - Goal 2: _____
 - How I'll Achieve It: _____
 - Goal 3: _____
 - How I'll Achieve It: _____

Bonus Activity: Mock Interview Prep

Objective: Simulate part of an interview experience to test your preparation in a low-pressure setting.

- Pair up with a friend, family member, or teacher, and take turns asking each other the questions from Part 2. Use your cheat sheet mentally to guide your answers. After, ask for feedback on how clear, confident, and engaging your responses were.
- Feedback Received:
- What I'll Work On Next Time:

Final Note for Students: Completing this worksheet is a big step toward mastering interview preparation! Keep this as a reference for future opportunities, and remember that every bit of practice builds your confidence. Interviews are a chance to show who you are—so use these tools to let your unique strengths shine. You've got this!
