Worksheet for Chapter 6: Professional Etiquette in Different Settings

Instructions: Complete this worksheet to practice and internalize the etiquette strategies discussed in Chapter 6. Use a notebook, digital document, or printout to write your answers. Share your responses with a friend, family member, or teacher for feedback if possible. Let's build those professional skills and make a lasting impression!

Part 1: Classroom and School Event Etiquette

Objective: Develop habits for respectful interactions with teachers, peers, and guest speakers to create a positive environment.

- Classroom Respect Reflection Think about a recent class or school event (like an assembly). Answer the following:
 - How did you show respect to the teacher or speaker (e.g., raising your hand, staying quiet)?
 - What's one thing you could do better next time to stay engaged (e.g., ask a question, avoid distractions)?
 - Write one goal for your behaviour in class this week.
- Guest Speaker Interaction Plan Imagine a guest speaker is coming to your school to talk about a career you're interested in. Write 1-2 thoughtful questions you'd ask during the Q&A session. Keep them specific and relevant to their topic.
 - Question 1: _____
 - Question 2: _____
- Peer Collaboration Scenario Describe a time you worked with classmates on a project or group activity. How did you contribute or show teamwork? If there was a conflict, how did you handle it respectfully (or how would you next time)?
 - My Experience: _____
 - What I Learned: _____

Part 2: Workplace Basics for Internships or Part-Time Jobs

Objective: Practice essential workplace behaviours like punctuality, teamwork, and asking for help to prepare for professional settings.

- Punctuality Plan Think about a part-time job, internship, or even a school commitment with a strict start time. Answer these questions to plan for being on time:
 - What time does it start, and how will you ensure you arrive 5-10 minutes early?
 - What's one potential delay (e.g., bus issues, oversleeping), and how will you prepare for it?

- If you're late, write a short message you'd send to your supervisor to apologize and give an ETA.
- Teamwork in Action Imagine you're working at a local café, and a coworker is struggling during a busy shift. Write 1-2 sentences about how you'd offer help without overstepping. Then, reflect on why teamwork matters in a job.
 - How I'd Help: _____
 - Why Teamwork Matters: _____
- Asking for Help Practice Think of a task you might not understand at a job (e.g., using a cash register or software). Write a polite, specific request you'd make to a supervisor or coworker during a quiet moment to get clarification.
 - My Request: _____

Part 3: Digital Etiquette: Emails and Online Communication

Objective: Build skills for professional online interactions through email writing and virtual meeting etiquette.

- Professional Email Draft Write a short email to a teacher or potential employer asking for information (e.g., about a missed assignment or a job opportunity). Include a clear subject line, polite greeting, concise body, and proper sign-off.
 - Subject: _____
 - Email Body: _____
- Virtual Meeting Prep Imagine you have a Zoom call for a school project or job interview. List 3 things you'll do before the call to ensure you're prepared and look professional (e.g., test tech, choose outfit).
 - Prep Step 1: _____
 - Prep Step 2: _____
 - Prep Step 3: _____
- Digital Mistake Reflection Have you ever made a digital etiquette mistake (e.g., sent a sloppy email, posted something inappropriate)? Describe what happened (or imagine a scenario). What did you learn, and how will you avoid it in the future?
 - My Experience/Scenario: _____
 - Lesson Learned: _____

Part 4: Personal Action Plan - Putting It All Together

Objective: Create a personalized strategy to build professional etiquette across different settings over time.

- My Etiquette Game Plan Pick one tip or strategy from each section of Chapter 6 (Classroom/School Events, Workplace, Digital) that you'll commit to using in the next week. Write why you chose each and how you'll practice it.
 - Classroom/School Event Tip: _____ (Why? _____) (How I'll Practice: _____)
 - Workplace Tip: _____ (Why? _____) (How I'll Practice: _____)
 - Digital Etiquette Tip: _____ (Why? _____) (How I'll Practice: _____)

Final Challenge: Pair up with a friend, sibling, or parent to role-play one scenario from each section:

- A classroom discussion where you raise your hand and ask a thoughtful question.
- A workplace moment where you arrive early and offer help to a "coworker."
- A mock email exchange or Zoom call setup where you practice professional tone and prep. Afterward, ask for feedback on how respectful and polished you seemed. Write down one piece of feedback you received and how you'll act on it.
- Feedback Received: _____

- How I'll Improve: _____

Note for Students: Keep this worksheet as a guide for practicing professional etiquette in your daily life. Revisit and update your answers as you gain more experience in school, jobs, or online interactions. Remember, every small step—whether it's arriving on time, sending a polished email, or showing respect—builds your reputation as someone ready for the future. You've got this!
