

Chapter 7

MCQs

Question 1

What is the best way to receive constructive criticism gracefully during a school project review or mock interview?

- ☐ A) Interrupt the person giving feedback to explain why they're wrong
- ☐ B) Listen without interrupting, ask clarifying questions if needed, and thank them for their input
- ☐ C) Ignore the feedback and focus only on what you think you did well
- ☐ D) Get upset and walk away to avoid hearing more criticism

Correct Answer: B)

Listen without interrupting, ask clarifying questions if needed, and thank them for their input

Question 2

How can you turn rejection into motivation after not getting selected for a club or job?

- ☐ A) Give up on trying for similar opportunities since you weren't chosen
- ☐ B) Feel disappointed for a short time, ask for feedback if possible, and use it as a learning opportunity to improve
- ☐ C) Blame others for the decision and refuse to try again
- ☐ D) Pretend the rejection didn't happen and avoid thinking about it

Correct Answer: B)

Feel disappointed for a short time, ask for feedback if possible, and use it as a learning opportunity to improve

Question 3

Why is self-reflection important after a mock interview or class presentation?

- ☐ A) It helps you criticize yourself harshly so you never make mistakes again
- ☐ B) It allows you to identify what went well and what to improve, setting goals for next time
- ☐ C) It's only useful if someone else tells you what you did wrong
- ☐ D) It wastes time since you can't change what already happened

Correct Answer: B)

It allows you to identify what went well and what to improve, setting goals for next time

Question 4

What should you do if feedback from a teacher or coach feels unclear or confusing?

- ☐ A) Assume they don't know what they're talking about and ignore it
- ☐ B) Politely ask for clarification with a question like, "Can you explain what you mean by that?"
- ☐ C) Argue with them to prove your point instead of listening
- ☐ D) Nod and pretend you understand, even if you don't

Correct Answer: B)

Politely ask for clarification with a question like, "Can you explain what you mean by that?"