

Chapter 9

MCQs

Question 1

When crafting a short 1-2 minute presentation about yourself for a job interview at a local pet store, what is the BEST way to structure your talk to make a strong impression?

B) .

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 2

You're interviewing for a summer camp counsellor position and want to use a visual to support your presentation. Which of the following is the MOST effective way to use a prop during your talk?

- A) Bring a large scrapbook with every photo from your life and flip through it while speaking.
- B) Show a single photo of you leading a group of kids at an event, briefly explain its relevance ("This scavenger hunt taught me patience"), and then refocus on your words.
- C) Use a slideshow with 15 slides full of tiny text and read every word directly off the screen.
- D) Hold up a random object, like a toy, without explaining why it matters to your story.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 3

Before giving a class presentation, you feel your heart racing and your hands shaking. Which technique from Chapter 9 is the MOST effective immediate way to calm your nerves right before you start speaking?

- A) Tell yourself, "I'm going to mess up," to prepare for the worst.
- B) Use the "4-7-8" breathing method: Inhale for 4 seconds, hold for 7, exhale for 8, and repeat 3-5 times.
- C) Avoid practicing beforehand so you don't overthink it.
- D) Focus on every person in the audience staring at you to stay alert.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 4

Imagine you're preparing for a scholarship interview. How can you combine skills from all sections of Chapter 9 to make the strongest impact?

- A) Memorize a long speech without practicing it aloud and bring 10 unrelated props to show off.
- B) Prepare a structured 1-2 minute talk about your achievements, use one relevant visual like a certificate to highlight a key point, and practice deep breathing to manage nerves.
- C) Focus only on visuals by creating a 20-slide presentation and skip talking about yourself.
- D) Avoid preparing a personal story and just answer whatever questions come up without a plan.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question