Worksheet for Chapter 9: Presentation Skills for Interviews and Beyond

Purpose: To reinforce key concepts from Chapter 9 through reflective questions, practical activities, and self-assessment, focusing on preparing a short presentation, using visuals effectively, and overcoming stage fright.

Part 1: Quick Reflective Questions

Answer the following questions briefly to think about the concepts from Chapter 9. Keep responses short (1-2 sentences)

- Preparing a Short Presentation About Yourself Why is it important to tailor your “about me” presentation to your audience?
- Using Visuals and Props Effectively What’s one item or visual you could use to show a skill or achievement?
- Overcoming Stage Fright Which Chapter 9 technique (e.g., deep breathing) would you use to calm nerves, and why?

Part 2: Hands-On Activities

Complete these activities to practice the skills from Chapter 9. Write brief notes after each task (1-2 sentences).

- “Me in a Minute” Practice (Section 1: Preparing a Short Presentation)
 - Task: Think of a 1-minute “about me” talk using the “3 P’s” (Past, Present, Potential). Focus on a specific goal (e.g., job interview).
 - Action: Practice saying it out loud to someone or in front of a mirror. Time yourself.
 - Reflection: How did it feel? What was easy or hard?
- Visual Showcase Idea (Section 2: Using Visuals and Props)
 - Task: Pick 1 item or visual (e.g., photo, certificate) that shows a skill or achievement.
 - Action: Show it to someone (or pretend to) and explain why it matters in 30 seconds.
 - Reflection: Did it help tell your story? How did it feel?
- Nerve-Buster Challenge (Section 3: Overcoming Stage Fright)
 - Task: Choose a simple topic (e.g., “My Favorite Hobby”) for a 1-minute talk.
 - Action: Do the “4-7-8” breathing exercise (inhale 4, hold 7, exhale 8, repeat 3 times) before presenting to someone.
 - Reflection: Did breathing help? What went well?

Part 3: Self-Assessment Checklist

Rate yourself on how confident you feel about each skill from Chapter 9. Circle your rating for each statement.

- I can prepare a short 1-2 minute presentation about myself using a clear structure (like the “3 P’s”).
 - Not Confident (1) | Somewhat Confident (2) | Confident (3) | Very Confident (4)
- I can choose and use a relevant visual or prop to support my presentation.
 - Not Confident (1) | Somewhat Confident (2) | Confident (3) | Very Confident (4)
- I can manage stage fright using techniques like deep breathing.
 - Not Confident (1) | Somewhat Confident (2) | Confident (3) | Very Confident (4)

Quick Reflection: Which skill needs more practice, and what’s one thing you’ll do to improve?

Part 4: Final Challenge – Put It All Together

Combine what you’ve learned into one mini-presentation.

- Task: Prepare a 2-minute presentation about yourself for a scenario (e.g., job interview). Include:
 - A structured talk (use “3 P’s”).
 - One visual or prop.
 - A way to manage nerves (e.g., breathing).
- Action: Present to someone or record yourself on your phone.
- Quick Reflection: What went well? What was tricky?

Bonus: Confidence Notebook Entry

Add a quick note to your “Confidence Notebook” or phone. Write:

- One thing you did well today.
- One thing to improve.
- A hype message to yourself (e.g., “I’ve got this!”).

Note for Students: Great work on completing this worksheet! These activities are designed to build your presentation skills with minimal writing. If anything felt tricky, that’s okay—keep practicing. Share your final challenge with a friend or teacher for feedback. Remember, every time you speak up, you’re getting stronger. You’ve got this, rockstar—keep shining!
