

Chapter 6

MCQs

Question 1

What is a key way to inspire others through positive examples as discussed in the chapter?

- ☐ A) Giving long speeches about success
- ☐ B) Demonstrating resilience and integrity in your actions
- ☐ C) Telling peers what they should do to improve
- ☐ D) Focusing only on your own achievements

Correct Answer: B)

Demonstrating resilience and integrity in your actions

Question 2

Why is specific praise more effective than generic compliments when offering encouragement?

- ☐ A) It sounds more professional
- ☐ B) It shows you're paying attention to their unique efforts
- ☐ C) It takes less time to say
- ☐ D) It makes you seem more authoritative

Correct Answer: B)

It shows you're paying attention to their unique efforts

Question 3

What is a recommended strategy for offering guidance to a peer who is struggling?

- ☐ A) Tell them exactly how to solve their problem
- ☐ B) Focus on their mistakes to help them learn
- ☐ C) Suggest solutions while encouraging them to find their own way
- ☐ D) Avoid giving advice so they don't feel pressured

Correct Answer: C)

Suggest solutions while encouraging them to find their own way

Question 4

What does the chapter identify as a core component of empathy in peer-to-peer coaching?

- ☐ A) Solving problems for your peer quickly
- ☐ B) Understanding and acknowledging their emotions and perspective
- ☐ C) Telling them how you would handle their situation
- ☐ D) Keeping conversations short to avoid discomfort

Correct Answer: B)

Understanding and acknowledging their emotions and perspective

Question 5

How can active listening help in building empathy with a peer, according to the chapter?

- ☐ A) It shows you're in a hurry to move on to solutions
- ☐ B) It allows you to interrupt with helpful advice
- ☐ C) It demonstrates that you're fully engaged and value their thoughts
- ☐ D) It helps you avoid asking too many questions

Correct Answer: C)

It demonstrates that you're fully engaged and value their thoughts

Question 6

What should you do if a peer shares a personal struggle during a coaching conversation?

- ☐ A) Share your own story immediately to relate to them
- ☒ B) Promise to keep it confidential and avoid judgment
- ☐ C) Suggest they talk to someone else for help
- ☐ D) Change the topic to make them feel more comfortable

Correct Answer: B)

Promise to keep it confidential and avoid judgment