

Chapter 6

MCQs

Question 1

How Ads Target Teens Why are teens considered a prime target for advertisers?

- ☐ A) Teens have unlimited money to spend on products.
- ☐ B) Teens are less active online compared to adults.
- ☐ C) Teens are shaping their identities and are influenced by trends, making them open to ads.
- ☐ D) Teens don't use social media platforms where ads are common. Correct Answer: C) Teens are shaping their identities and are influenced by trends, making them open to ads.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 2

Marketing Tactics on Platforms How do ads on TikTok often blend in with regular content to target teens?

- ☐ A) They appear as long, formal commercials with detailed product info.
- ☐ B) They mimic viral content like challenges or dances using trending sounds.
- ☐ C) They are only shown in separate sections away from user posts.
- ☐ D) They avoid using hashtags to stay unnoticed by users. Correct Answer: B) They mimic viral content like challenges or dances using trending sounds.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 3

Influencer Endorsements and Hidden Sponsorships What is a common issue with influencer endorsements on social media?

- A) Influencers always clearly label every post as an ad with #ad or #sponsored.
- B) Influencers never get paid to promote products to their followers.
- C) Influencers may not disclose they were paid, making a promotion seem like a genuine opinion.
- D) Influencers only promote products they dislike to be honest with fans. Correct Answer: C) Influencers may not disclose they were paid, making a promotion seem like a genuine opinion.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 4

Recognizing Persuasive Techniques – Emotional Appeals How do emotional appeals in ads work to influence teen consumers?

- A) They provide detailed facts and statistics about a product's quality.
- B) They create a sense of urgency by claiming limited stock is available.
- C) They connect a product to strong feelings like happiness or insecurity to motivate a purchase.
- D) They show that everyone else is buying the product to avoid missing out. Correct Answer: C) They connect a product to strong feelings like happiness or insecurity to motivate a purchase.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 5

Recognizing Persuasive Techniques – Scarcity Tactics What is the main goal of scarcity tactics like “Limited time offer!” in advertisements?

- ☐ A) To give consumers plenty of time to research the product before buying.
- ☒ B) To create urgency and pressure teens to buy quickly before they miss out.
- ☐ C) To ensure the product is always available at a low price.
- ☐ D) To encourage teens to ignore the ad and look for better deals elsewhere. Correct Answer: B) To create urgency and pressure teens to buy quickly before they miss out.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 6

Making Informed Consumer Choices What is a practical strategy for teens to avoid impulse buying after seeing an ad?

- ☐ A) Buy the product immediately to take advantage of a limited offer.
- ☒ B) Follow the 24-hour rule by waiting a day before deciding to purchase.
- ☐ C) Trust the ad’s claims without checking reviews or comparing prices.
- ☐ D) Ask friends to buy the product for you to avoid personal regret. Correct Answer: B) Follow the 24-hour rule by waiting a day before deciding to purchase.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question