Capstone Project and Review Worksheet for Chapter 10

Hey, high school champs! Welcome to the Chapter 10 Worksheet—your final mission in “Negotiation & Persuasion Techniques for High Schoolers.” This is where you bring it all together with a capstone project, real-world simulations, peer feedback, course review, and future goals. This quick, action-packed sheet is designed to take about 20-25 minutes total, with short reflections and doable steps tailored for your busy life. Use this to prove your skills at school, with friends, or beyond. Let’s finish strong and show the world what you’ve got!

Part 1: Designing a Negotiation or Persuasion Challenge

Objective: Create your own challenge to test your skills in a relatable high school scenario. Activity – Challenge

Craft (3 min): Think of a negotiation or persuasion situation (like convincing a teacher for an extension or parents for a privilege). Write 1-2 sentences on your goal and 1 key strategy you’d use.

- My challenge & goal: _____
- My strategy: _____ Action Plan: What’s 1 challenge you can design and prep for this week? Who’s involved?
- My plan: _____

Part 2: Applying Skills in a Simulated Real-World Scenario

Objective: Act out your challenge to practice skills under “real” pressure. Activity – Simulation Snapshot (3 min): Imagine or role-play your challenge (solo or with a friend). Write 1 sentence on a skill you’d use (like active listening) and how you’d handle a “no.”

- My skill & response: _____ Action Plan: When can you simulate this scenario (even mentally) this week? With who, if anyone?
- My simulation: _____

Part 3: Peer Feedback and Group Reflection

Objective: Learn from others by sharing feedback and reflecting as a team. Activity – Feedback Focus (3 min):

After a simulation (yours or a peer’s), write 1 sentence on something that worked well and 1 thing to improve for next time. (If solo, reflect on your own performance.)

- What worked: _____
- What to improve: _____ Action Plan: Who can you swap feedback with this week (friend or classmate)? When?
- My feedback moment: _____

Part 4: Reviewing Key Learnings from the Course

Objective: Recap the big skills and lessons that stuck with you from the course. Activity – Skill Rewind (3 min): Think back on the course. Write 1 sentence on a key skill (like framing benefits or emotional intelligence) you've improved and how it helped in a real or simulated moment.

- My key skill & impact: _____ Action Plan: What's 1 past lesson or skill you'll revisit this week in a small convo? Where?
- My rewind: _____

Part 5: Setting Long-Term Goals for Skill Development

Objective: Plan how to keep growing your negotiation and persuasion powers beyond this course. Activity – Future Forward (3 min): Write 1 sentence on a long-term goal (3 months or 1 year) for your skills—like using persuasion in college apps or clubs—and 1 small step to start.

- My goal & first step: _____ Action Plan: When will you take that first step toward your goal? Who might help or be involved?
- My starting point: _____

Final Reflection (2-3 min):

How has this course changed the way you negotiate or persuade in high school or life? Write 1 quick thought on your biggest takeaway and how you'll use it moving forward.

- My big takeaway: _____
