

Chapter 2

MCQs

Question 1

What is a key component of active listening that shows you are fully engaged in the conversation?

- A) Checking your phone occasionally to stay updated
- B) Interrupting to share your own opinion quickly
- C) Nodding and paraphrasing what the speaker said
- D) Thinking about what to say next while the other person talks

Correct Answer: C)

Nodding and paraphrasing what the speaker said

Question 2

When asking a teacher for extra help, which approach demonstrates effective verbal communication?

- A) Mumbling, "Uh, I don't get this... can you help or whatever?"
- B) Saying clearly, "I'm struggling with this topic. Could we go over it together?"
- C) Complaining, "This is too hard, I can't do it at all!"
- D) Whispering, "I need help," so quietly the teacher can't hear

Correct Answer: B)

Saying clearly, "I'm struggling with this topic. Could we go over it together?"

Question 3

How can non-verbal communication impact a conversation during a group project discussion?

- A) Slouching and avoiding eye contact can show you're confident
- B) Smiling and leaning forward can show interest and encourage others to share
- C) Crossing your arms and frowning can make you seem more approachable
- D) Looking at your phone constantly can show you're a good multitasker

Correct Answer: B)

Smiling and leaning forward can show interest and encourage others to share

Question 4

What is an empathetic response if a friend tells you they're upset about not getting picked for a school play?

- A) "Just try again next time, it's not a big deal."
- B) "I know how disappointing that feels. I'm here if you want to talk about it."
- C) "Why didn't you practice more? That's probably why."
- D) "Let's not talk about it, you'll get over it soon."

Correct Answer: B)

"I know how disappointing that feels. I'm here if you want to talk about it."