

Chapter 3

MCQs

Question 1

What is the main difference between competitive and collaborative negotiation?

- ☐ A) Competitive focuses on mutual gain, while collaborative focuses on winning at all costs
- ☐ B) Competitive is about one side winning, while collaborative aims for both sides to benefit
- ☐ C) Competitive builds long-term relationships, while collaborative is for one-time deals
- ☐ D) Competitive involves teamwork, while collaborative involves hiding information

Correct Answer: B)

Competitive is about one side winning, while collaborative aims for both sides to benefit

Question 2

Why is it important to identify your interests before a negotiation?

- ☐ A) It helps you hide your true goals from the other party
- ☐ B) It allows you to focus on the deeper reasons behind what you want and find flexible solutions
- ☐ C) It ensures you always get exactly what you ask for without compromise
- ☐ D) It makes the other party agree with you immediately

Correct Answer: B)

It allows you to focus on the deeper reasons behind what you want and find flexible solutions

Question 3

What is an effective way to understand the other party's perspective during a negotiation?

- ☐ A) Assume you know their reasons and push your own agenda
- ☐ B) Interrupt them to explain why your side is more important
- ☐ C) Ask open-ended questions and actively listen to their concerns
- ☐ D) Ignore their feelings to stay focused on your goals

Correct Answer: C)

Ask open-ended questions and actively listen to their concerns

Question 4

What is a key characteristic of a win-win solution in negotiation?

- ☐ A) One party gets everything they want, while the other compromises completely
- ☐ B) Both parties feel satisfied because their core interests are addressed
- ☐ C) It only works in competitive negotiations where winning is the goal
- ☐ D) It avoids any form of compromise to keep things simple

Correct Answer: B)

Both parties feel satisfied because their core interests are addressed