Persuasion in Group Settings Worksheet for Chapter 6

This quick worksheet helps you apply key ideas from Chapter 6: Persuasion in Group Settings. It's designed to be short and fun, focusing on practical skills for team projects, leading decisions, handling disagreements, public speaking, and group practice. Spend about 15-20 minutes total, and use it to boost your group influence at school or with friends. Let's dive in!

Part 1: Influencing Peers – Get Your Ideas Heard

Objective: Practice swaying peers in a team setting. Activity – Quick Pitch (2 min): Think of a group project idea (like a cool theme). Write 1 sentence to pitch it with enthusiasm using “we” language.

- My pitch: _____ Action Plan: Who will you share this with? How will you show energy?
- My plan: _____

Part 2: Leading Decisions – Guide Without Bossing

Objective: Test leadership that includes everyone. Activity – Mini Lead (2 min): Imagine leading a group to pick a club activity. Write 1 question you'd ask to get input.

- My question: _____ Action Plan: Next group convo, ask for ideas before suggesting yours. Note how it feels.
- My goal: _____

Part 3: Managing Disagreements – Build Agreement

Objective: Turn conflict into consensus. Activity – Conflict Fix (2 min): Think of a group disagreement (real or made-up). Write 1 way to find common ground.

- My solution: _____ Action Plan: Next time there's a clash, stay calm and try your idea. What will you say?
- My approach: _____

Part 4: Public Speaking – Wow Your Audience

Objective: Build confidence to persuade a crowd. Activity – Speech Hook (3 min): Pick a topic (like “why we need a school game day”). Write a 1-sentence hook (question, stat, or story) to start strong.

- My hook: _____ Action Plan: Practice this hook aloud to a friend or mirror. How will you add energy?
- My practice: _____

Part 5: Group Practice – Test Your Skills

Objective: Try persuasion in a team. Activity – Mini Team Challenge (3 min): Plan a quick fake group task with friends or family (like “best movie night”). Pick 1 skill from Chapter 6 (e.g., influencing or consensus). Write how you’ll use it.

- Task & skill: _____
- How I’ll use it: _____ Action Plan: After trying, note 1 thing that worked or didn’t.
- Result: _____
