Worksheet: Managing Online Reputation (Chapter 6)

This worksheet is designed to help you apply the concepts from Chapter 6: Managing Online Reputation. Complete the activities below to understand your digital footprint, monitor your online presence, handle feedback, and plan for a positive reputation. Keep it real and have fun reflecting on your online self!

Part 1: Understanding Your Online Reputation

Think about what “Online Reputation Management” means to you. Answer the following to get started.

- What does your online reputation mean to you? (e.g., how you’re seen by friends, teachers, or future colleges):
- Write down 3 words you want people to think of when they see your online profiles (e.g., funny, kind, creative):

Part 2: Monitor Your Digital Footprint

Let’s play detective! Take a moment to check what’s out there about you online. If you don’t have social media, imagine what you’d want to find.

- Google your name (or a nickname/handle you use). What’s the first thing that comes up? (e.g., a post, photo, or nothing):
- Is there anything you’d want to change or remove? If yes, what and why?

Part 3: Handling Feedback or Mistakes

Imagine a scenario where something goes wrong online. How would you handle it?

- Scenario: A friend tags you in an embarrassing photo, and people are commenting mean things. What’s your first step to handle it? (e.g., untag, talk to your friend, ignore it):
- Write a short, polite response to a negative comment on one of your posts (e.g., “Thanks for your opinion, I’ll think about it”):

Part 4: Plan to Build or Repair Your Reputation

Think about how to keep your online presence positive or fix something if needed.

- One positive thing I can post this week to show the real me (e.g., a hobby, a school achievement, a funny moment):
- One small action I’ll take to clean up my online presence (e.g., delete old posts, update privacy settings, or set a Google Alert):

Part 5: Reflection

Wrap up by thinking about what you've learned and setting a goal.

- What's one thing from this chapter that surprised you or made you think differently about your online rep?
- My Online Reputation Goal for this month (e.g., "Make my profile more positive" or "Check my tags weekly"):

Bonus Challenge (Optional): Try one action from Part 4 this week—like posting something positive or checking your Google results. Write down how it felt to take control of your online story. Share with a friend or classmate if you're comfortable!
