

Chapter 9

MCQs

Question 1

Why do colleges and employers often check your online presence?

- ☐ A) To see how many followers you have on social media.
 - ☒ B) To get a first impression of your personality, skills, and potential red flags.
 - ☐ C) To find out if you post funny memes or trending content.
 - ☐ D) To make sure you're using the latest social media apps.
- Correct Answer: B

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 2

What is a good way to showcase your achievements and skills online as a teen?

- ☐ A) Post about every small thing you do every day to flood your feed.
 - ☒ B) Share specific wins with a thoughtful caption and balance it with personal posts.
 - ☐ C) Exaggerate your accomplishments to seem more impressive.
 - ☐ D) Only post about achievements on private accounts where no one can see them.
- Correct Answer: B

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 3

What is one benefit of creating a digital portfolio or blog for a high school student?

- ☐ A) It guarantees you'll get into any college or job you apply for.
 - ☐ B) It provides a controlled space to showcase your best work and impress colleges or employers.
 - ☐ C) It's a place to share personal secrets and daily rants.
 - ☐ D) It's only useful if you're already a professional in your field.
- Correct Answer: B

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 4

How can you align your personal brand with your career or academic aspirations?

- ☐ A) Post random content without any connection to your goals to seem unpredictable.
 - ☐ B) Update your bio and share content related to your dream field while engaging with relevant communities.
 - ☐ C) Avoid mentioning your goals online to keep them a surprise.
 - ☐ D) Only follow friends and ignore professionals or pages in your field of interest.
- Correct Answer: B

Note: No correct answer specified for this question