Worksheet for Chapter 2: Public Policy in India – Decoding Decisions That Impact Teens

Welcome to an exciting journey into the world of public policy! This worksheet is designed for high school students (Classes 9-12) to explore how government decisions shape your life. Through fun activities, creative challenges, and thought-provoking questions, you'll uncover the magic behind policies and how YOU can make a difference. Grab a pen, team up with friends, and let's dive in!

Part 1: Policy Explorer – What's Around You?

Activity: Spot the Policy! Look around your school, neighbourhood, or even online. Find one real-life example of a public policy in action (like free midday meals, a clean-up campaign, or a digital learning app). Answer the following:

- What policy did you spot? (Example: Midday Meal Scheme at school)
- What's its goal? (Why does it exist?)
- How does it impact teens like you? (Good or bad?)

Bonus Challenge: Draw a quick sketch or paste a photo of this policy in action (like a "No Plastic" sign or a school meal counter). Show it to your class for extra points!

Part 2: Stakeholder Role-Play – Who's in Charge?

Activity: Be a Stakeholder! Imagine a new policy is being made: "All schools must have free sports equipment for teens." Pick a stakeholder role from the list below and write a short speech (3-5 sentences) on what you'd say to support or oppose this policy.

- Roles to Choose From: A teen student, an MP (Member of Parliament), an NGO worker, or a school principal.
- My Role: _____
- My Speech:

Group Fun: Act out your speech in small groups with friends playing different roles. Vote on who had the most convincing argument!

Part 3: Policy Debate – Pick Your Side!

Activity: Debate Like a Pro! Choose one of the teen-relevant policy issues below. Write one argument FOR the policy and one argument AGAINST it. Be ready to discuss!

- Options: a) Smartphone Bans in Schools b) Reservation in Education c) Mandatory Clean-Up Drives for Teens
- My Chosen Issue: _____
- Argument FOR the Policy:

- Argument AGAINST the Policy:

Classroom Twist: Pair up with a friend who picks the opposite side. Have a mini-debate (2 minutes each) in front of the class. Who wins the crowd?

Part 4: Truth Tracker – Bust the Myths!

Activity: Fact vs. Fake! Pick a policy topic that interests teens (like free laptops for students, exam rules, or internet privacy). Search for info from two sources: one official (like MyGov.in) and one random (like a WhatsApp forward or unverified social media post). Compare them below.

- Policy Topic: _____
- Official Source (e.g., MyGov.in or PIB): What does it say?
- Random Source (e.g., social media): What does it say?
- Which source do you trust more, and why?

Fun Share: Tell your class the weirdest or funniest fake news you found about a policy. Let's laugh and learn together!

Part 5: Creative Corner – Design Your Own Policy!

Activity: Be a Policymaker! If YOU could create a new policy for teens in India, what would it be? Think of a problem you face (like expensive study materials, lack of safe hangout spots, or cyberbullying). Design your policy below.

- My Policy Name: (Example: "Free Study App for All Teens")
- What problem does it solve?
- How will it help teens?
- Who will be involved in making it happen? (Government, schools, teens, etc.)

Art Bonus: Create a colorful poster for your policy with a catchy slogan. Display it in class to inspire others!

Final Mission for Teens: Reflect on this chapter. What's one policy you learned about that surprised or inspired you? Write a short note (2-3 sentences) on how you could help make it better or spread awareness about it among friends.
