Worksheet for Chapter 4: Civic Engagement – Taking Action in Your Indian Community

Title: Teen Civic Superhero Challenge! Make Your Community Shine Grade Level: High School (Classes 9-12)

Objective: To inspire students to explore civic engagement concepts from Chapter 4 by identifying local issues, planning actionable steps, and designing creative ways to contribute to their community.

Part 1: Discover Your Civic Superpower

Step 1: Spot a Community Issue Look around your school, neighborhood, or town. What's one problem or opportunity for improvement that you'd love to tackle? It could be dirty streets, lack of trees, or even the need for a teen hangout spot. Write it down!

- My Community Issue:
- Why It Bugs Me or Excites Me (2-3 sentences):

Step 2: Pick Your Civic Engagement Style From Chapter 4, choose one way you'd like to engage with your community. Circle your choice and explain why it fits your personality or skills.

- Engagement Options: a) Volunteering (e.g., joining a cleanup or tutoring kids) b) Local Governance (e.g., speaking at a Gram Sabha or ward meeting) c) Starting/Joining an Initiative (e.g., eco-club or student council project)
- My Chosen Style: _____
- Why I Picked This (1-2 sentences):

Step 3: Plan Your First Mission (10 minutes) Every superhero needs a starting point! Plan one small, doable action to kickstart your civic engagement for the issue you picked. Use ideas from Chapter 4 like joining NSS, organizing a small event, or making posters.

- My First Action (what I'll do):
- Who I'll Team Up With (friends, family, teacher):
- Where/When I'll Do It (place and rough date):
- One Skill I'll Gain or Use (e.g., teamwork, speaking):

Fun Add-On: Draw a tiny "superhero badge" next to your plan that represents your mission (e.g., a broom for cleanups, a tree for planting). If you can't draw, describe it!

- Description of Badge:

Part 2: Create and Reflect on Your Impact

Step 4: Design a Campaign Hook (10 minutes) Let's get creative! Design a quick campaign idea to spread awareness about your issue. It could be a poster, a social media post, or a 30-second speech slogan. Include a catchy title or hashtag to grab attention.

- Campaign Type (poster/speech/social media): _____
- Catchy Title or Hashtag (e.g., #GreenMyStreet): _____
- Key Message (1-2 sentences to inspire action): _____
- Quick Sketch or Description of Visuals (if poster/social media): _____

Step 5: Imagine Your Victory (5 minutes) Dream big! If your action or campaign works, how will your community change? Also, think about a possible hurdle and how you'll overcome it with grit or teamwork (refer to Chapter 4's examples).

- If I Win, This Could Happen (2-3 sentences): _____
- A Possible Hurdle (e.g., no one joins me): _____
- How I'll Tackle It (e.g., ask for teacher support): _____

Step 6: My Civic Superhero Pledge (2 minutes) Commit to being a changemaker! Write a short pledge to take action and sign it to make it official.

- My Pledge: I, _____, pledge to take action for _____ in my community by starting small and staying dedicated. I will use my voice and skills to make India better, one step at a time!
- Signature: _____
- Date: _____

Bonus Creativity Corner: Invent a superhero name for yourself based on your cause (e.g., "Trash Terminator" for cleanups or "Water Warrior" for conservation). Write it here with a one-line motto.

- Superhero Name: _____
- Motto: _____
