Worksheet for Chapter 6: Capstone Project – Be the Change: Civic Action Challenge in India

Hey, Changemakers! Welcome to the ultimate Civic Action Challenge! This worksheet is your guide to becoming a teen hero in your community. Packed with fun tasks, creative challenges, and thought-provoking questions, it's designed to help you design, present, and reflect on your civic action plan. Grab a pen, unleash your ideas, and let's make a difference—one step at a time!

Part 1: Designing Your Civic Action Plan – Become a Problem Solver!

Let's start by picking an issue that fires you up and creating a plan to tackle it. Think of yourself as a detective solving a community mystery!

- What's Bugging You? (Pick Your Cause) Think about your school, neighborhood, or friends. What's one problem you'd love to fix? Circle one of the options below or write your own:
 - School Infrastructure (e.g., broken desks, no water filters)
 - Cleanliness (e.g., littered parks, dirty streets)
 - Digital Literacy (e.g., helping elders use smartphones)
 - My Own Idea: _____ Quick Fun Challenge: Give your issue a cool codename! (e.g., "Operation Clean Park" or "Mission Water Fix") My Codename: _____
- Action Roadmap – Plan Your Mission! Fill in the blanks to create your civic action plan. Be specific and set deadlines (like 1-2 months).
 - Issue: (What's the problem?) _____
 - Goal: (What do you want to achieve?) _____
 - Advocacy Step 1: (How will you raise awareness? e.g., write a letter to the principal) _____ Deadline: _____
 - Advocacy Step 2: (Another way to push for change? e.g., start a petition) _____ Deadline: _____
 - Engagement Idea: (How will you involve others? e.g., organize a cleanup day) _____ Deadline: _____ Sticker Star Moment: Draw a small star next to the step you're most excited about!
- Mini Quiz – What Kind of Changemaker Are You? Answer with Yes (Y) or No (N), then check your result!
 - I love organizing events and getting people together. (Y/N)
 - I'm great at explaining ideas through writing or speaking. (Y/N)
 - I enjoy creating posters, videos, or memes to grab attention. (Y/N) Results: Mostly Ys for organizing =

"Team Captain"; for explaining = "Voice of Change"; for creating = "Creative Crusader". Write your title here: _____

Part 2: Presenting Your Vision – Inspire Like a Pro!

Now that you've got a plan, it's time to get others on board. Think of this as your chance to be a social media influencer for a cause!

- Craft Your Pitch! Choose how you'll share your plan (circle one): Speech / Poster / Video Write a short tagline or slogan for your cause to grab attention. (e.g., "Trash to Treasure – Clean Today!") My Slogan: _____ Meme Magic Bonus: Create a quick meme idea for your cause. Describe it or sketch it below! (e.g., Use a "Success Kid" meme with the text "Fixed the School Fans!") My Meme Idea: _____
- Why Should Teens Care? Write 1-2 sentences explaining why your issue matters to Indian teens like you. (e.g., "Broken school benches make studying uncomfortable—we deserve better!") My Reason: _____
- Change Pitch Feedback Log After presenting your plan to friends, family, or classmates, ask for feedback and note it here:
 - What did they like? _____
 - What could be better? _____
 - Will they join/support you? (Yes/No) Why? _____ Selfie Challenge: Take a pic with your poster or during your speech (if allowed) and paste it here or describe the moment!

Part 3: Reflecting on Your Civic Journey – Look Back, Plan Ahead!

Take a moment to think about how far you've come. You're not just a student—you're a future leader of India!

- My Civic Growth Story Answer these questions in 2-3 sentences each:
 - How has this project changed the way I think about being a citizen in India?
 - What was the coolest or hardest part of creating my action plan?
- Set a Future Goal Write one personal civic goal for the next year. (e.g., "Organize another cleanup by next summer.") My Goal: _____
- Civic Superhero Avatar Imagine yourself as a civic superhero! Fill in the details:
 - Superhero Name: (e.g., "Cleanup Crusader") _____
 - Superpower: (e.g., "Inspiring others to act") _____
 - Sketch or describe your costume: (e.g., "Cape with a broom symbol!") _____
- Fun Twist: Share your superhero idea with a friend and see who has the coolest avatar!

Bonus Challenge: Be the Change Badge!

Complete all sections of this worksheet and show it to your teacher or parent to earn your "Be the Change" badge! Draw or describe your badge design below (e.g., a shield with a heart and the Indian flag). Then sign your name as a proud changemaker! My Badge Design: _____ Signature: _____ Date: _____
