Worksheet for Chapter 10: Applying Research Skills in Real Life

Activity 1: Research Skills for College and Career Readiness

Objective: To practice using research skills to prepare for college applications or career goals. Instructions: Imagine you're applying for a college course or a ₹5,000 (approx. $60) internship related to a field like "engineering" or "digital marketing." Spend 10 minutes researching or planning how you'd use free resources to stand out. Fill in the sections below with a specific goal, one resource you'd use, and a fact or point you'd include in an application or interview. Then, answer the reflection question.

- College or Career Goal (e.g., "engineering at IIT"): _____
- Free Resource to Research (e.g., college website, Indeed): _____
- Fact or Point to Use (e.g., "India's tech growth is 10% yearly"): _____
- Source (real or pretend, e.g., TechIndia.com): _____

Reflection: How does researching for college or career goals under a ₹500 (approx. $6) budget boost your confidence and make you stand out? (2 sentences)

Activity 2: Using Research to Solve Everyday Problems

Objective: To apply research skills to tackle common teen challenges efficiently. Instructions: Think of an everyday problem you've faced recently, like "finding a cheap phone charger under ₹300 (approx. $3.60)" or "fixing a slow laptop." Spend 10 minutes brainstorming how you'd research a solution using free tools. List the problem, two search terms you'd use, and one source or platform to check. Then, answer the reflection question.

- Everyday Problem (e.g., "lost earbuds"): _____
- Search Term 1 (e.g., "cheap earbuds India"): _____
- Search Term 2 (e.g., "earbuds under ₹500"): _____
- Source or Platform (e.g., Google, YouTube): _____

Reflection: How does researching solutions for daily issues save you time or money (like ₹1,000 or approx. $12) compared to guessing or buying without checking? (2 sentences)

Activity 3: Staying Updated with Credible News and Information

Objective: To develop skills for identifying trustworthy news and staying informed. Instructions: Pretend you've heard a rumor or viral update, such as "new school exam rules for 2025" or "free tech giveaway under ₹10,000 (approx. $120)." Spend 10 minutes planning how to verify it. Write the rumor, two credible sources you'd check, and one red flag for fake news (e.g., no author). Then, answer the reflection question.

- Rumor or Viral Update (e.g., "exams delayed"): _____

- Credible Source 1 (e.g., CBSE website): _____
- Credible Source 2 (e.g., The Hindu): _____
- Red Flag for Fake News (e.g., sensational headline): _____

Reflection: Why is checking credible news sources important to avoid stress or mistakes worth ₹500 (approx. $6), and how does it help you stay smart? (2 sentences)

Activity 4: Lifelong Learning Through Research

Objective: To encourage curiosity and continuous learning through research on personal interests. Instructions: Pick a hobby or topic you're curious about, like "Indian street photography" or "budget gaming setups under ₹2,000 (approx. $24)." Spend 10 minutes planning how to learn more for free or low cost. List the topic, two free resources to explore it, and one specific thing you'd like to learn. Then, answer the reflection question.

- Hobby or Topic (e.g., "learning guitar"): _____
- Free Resource 1 (e.g., YouTube tutorials): _____
- Free Resource 2 (e.g., Reddit community): _____
- Specific Thing to Learn (e.g., "basic chords"): _____

Reflection: How does researching a personal interest for ₹100 (approx. $1.20) or free keep learning exciting, and why is lifelong learning valuable for your future? (2 sentences)

Reflection Corner: After completing this worksheet, write a short note (3-4 sentences) on what you learned about applying research skills in real life from these activities. Which concept—college/career prep, solving daily problems, staying updated with news, or lifelong learning—do you think will help you most in school or personal goals like "starting a vlog under ₹1,000 (approx. $12)," and why?
