

Chapter 5

MCQs

Question 1

What is a core principle of academic integrity, as discussed in the chapter?

- ☐ A) Copying others' work to save time on assignments
- ☒ B) Being honest, fair, and responsible in your schoolwork
- ☐ C) Submitting work without citing any sources
- ☐ D) Only focusing on getting high grades regardless of methods

Correct Answer: B)

Being honest, fair, and responsible in your schoolwork

Question 2

Which of the following is an example of plagiarism, according to the chapter?

- ☐ A) Quoting a source on "Indian Economy" with proper citation in your essay
- ☒ B) Rewriting a YouTube video's ideas on "Best Laptops under ₹30,000" without giving credit
- ☐ C) Writing an original essay based on your own research and thoughts
- ☐ D) Mentioning a friend's idea in a project with their permission and a shoutout

Correct Answer: B)

Rewriting a YouTube video's ideas on "Best Laptops under ₹30,000" without giving credit

Question 3

What is a key aspect of the ethical use of information and ideas, as explained in the chapter?

- ☐ A) Using others' work without mentioning them to make your project look original
- ☒ B) Giving credit to creators through citations or mentions when using their content
- ☐ C) Only using your own ideas without ever referencing external sources
- ☐ D) Copying exact paragraphs from websites to improve your writing

Correct Answer: B)

Giving credit to creators through citations or mentions when using their content

Question 4

How can honesty be demonstrated in academic collaboration, based on the chapter's guidance?

- ☐ A) Letting one teammate do all the work while claiming equal credit
- ☒ B) Contributing fairly to group tasks and clearly defining each person's role
- ☐ C) Copying a teammate's ideas without acknowledging their input
- ☐ D) Avoiding group work entirely to ensure individual honesty

Correct Answer: B)

Contributing fairly to group tasks and clearly defining each person's role