Worksheet for Chapter 6: Citation and Referencing Basics

Activity 1: Why Citation Matters

Objective: To reflect on the importance of citation in maintaining academic integrity and credibility.

Instructions: Think about a recent assignment or project, such as an essay on “Indian Freedom Struggle” or a presentation on “Tech Gadgets under ₹10,000 (approx. $120).” Spend 10 minutes answering the questions below to explore why citation is crucial for your work as a student.

- Project/Assignment Chosen: _____
- What could happen if you didn't cite sources in this task? (e.g., plagiarism risk, loss of trust):
- How does citing sources make your work stronger or more trustworthy? (2 sentences):

Reflection: How does giving credit to others' ideas or content make you feel about your own efforts? (1-2 sentences)

Activity 2: Exploring Citation Styles

Objective: To understand and practice using different citation styles (MLA, APA, Chicago). Instructions: Imagine you're referencing a book titled Indian Heritage by author Priya Sharma, published by Lotus Press in 2021, for a history essay. Spend 15 minutes writing a citation for this book in MLA and APA styles, using the formats from the chapter. Then, answer the reflection question.

- MLA Citation:
- APA Citation:

Reflection: Why do you think different subjects or teachers might prefer different citation styles, and how does using the correct style help your work look professional? (2 sentences)

Activity 3: Citing Different Sources

Objective: To practice citing various types of sources like books, articles, websites, and videos. Instructions: Pick a topic you're interested in, like “Top Indian Festivals” or “Best Gaming Apps under ₹500 (approx. $6).” Find (or imagine) one book, one website, and one YouTube video as sources for a pretend project. Write a citation for each in MLA style (refer to the chapter for formats). Spend 15 minutes on this. Then, answer the reflection question.

- Topic Chosen: _____
- Book Citation (MLA):
- Website Citation (MLA):
- YouTube Video Citation (MLA):

Reflection: How does citing different types of sources properly help organize your research and show your teacher you've used diverse materials? (2 sentences)

Activity 4: Using Citation Generators Responsibly

Objective: To explore citation tools and learn how to use them ethically and accurately. Instructions: Use a free online citation generator like EasyBib or Citation Machine (or imagine using one if you can't access it now). Pick a pretend source, such as a website on "Indian Street Food under ₹100 (approx. $1.20)" with an author named Vikram Rao, published on TasteOfIndia.com on 5 May 2023. Generate (or write how you would generate) an MLA citation, then check it for accuracy against the chapter's MLA format. Spend 15 minutes total.

- Source Chosen: _____
- Generated Citation (MLA):
- Is it accurate? If not, what did you fix or would you fix? (e.g., missing date, wrong title format):

Reflection: Why is it important to double-check citations from generators, and how can relying on them without verification affect your project's credibility? (2 sentences)

Reflection Corner: After completing this worksheet, write a short note (3-4 sentences) on what you learned about citation and referencing from these activities. Which concept—importance of citation, using citation styles, citing different sources, or using generators responsibly—do you think will help you most in school or personal projects, and why?
