Worksheet for Chapter 7: Writing with Integrity

Activity 1: Paraphrasing and Summarizing Without Plagiarizing

Objective: To practice rewriting ideas in your own words while giving proper credit to avoid plagiarism.

Instructions: Imagine you're working on a project about "Indian Street Food under ₹100 (approx. $1.20)." You find a sentence from a source: "Street food in Delhi is famous for its spicy chaat and affordable prices." Spend 10 minutes paraphrasing this sentence and summarizing the idea in 2 sentences, both in your own words. Add a pretend citation (e.g., "Source: FoodieBlog.com"). Then, answer the reflection question.

- Paraphrased Sentence:
- Summarized Idea (2 sentences):
- Citation: _____

Reflection: How does rewriting in your own words and citing the source help you maintain originality and honesty in your ₹500 (approx. $6) project? (2 sentences)

Activity 2: Quoting Sources Effectively

Objective: To learn how to use direct quotes sparingly and with proper context and citation. Instructions: Pick a topic like "Indian Festivals" or "Best Gaming Apps under ₹500 (approx. $6)." Imagine you found a powerful quote from a source: "Diwali lights up India with joy and unity." Spend 10 minutes writing a short 3-sentence paragraph: introduce the quote with context, include the quote with quotation marks, and explain its importance. Add a pretend citation (e.g., "Source: CultureVibe.com"). Then, answer the reflection question.

- Topic Chosen: _____
- Paragraph with Quote:
- Citation: _____

Reflection: Why is it important to use quotes only for impactful statements and to explain their relevance in your ₹1,000 (approx. $12) essay or vlog script? (2 sentences)

Activity 3: Integrating Sources into Your Writing

Objective: To practice blending source information smoothly into your own writing with proper credit.

Instructions: Choose a topic like "Impact of Social Media in India" or "Budget Tech Gadgets under ₹10,000 (approx. $120)." Write a short 4-5 sentence paragraph starting with your own idea, then integrate 1 paraphrased fact and 1 short quote from pretend sources using signal phrases (e.g., "According to"). Add fake citations (e.g., "Source: TechTrend.com"). Spend 15 minutes on this. Then, answer the reflection question.

- Topic Chosen: _____

- Paragraph with Integrated Sources:

Reflection: How does integrating sources with your own thoughts and signal phrases make your ₹2,000 (approx. $24) project flow better and sound more professional? (2 sentences)

Activity 4: Avoiding Common Citation Mistakes

Objective: To identify and correct frequent citation errors to maintain credibility in your work. Instructions: Imagine you're writing a report on "Air Pollution in Indian Cities" and use a fact: "Delhi's air quality drops by 40% in winter." You forget to cite it—oops! Spend 10 minutes writing a corrected version of this fact with a pretend citation in MLA style (e.g., "Source: CleanAirIndia.com"). Then, list 2 other common citation mistakes from the chapter (like wrong format or incomplete details) and explain how you'd avoid them. Answer the reflection question.

- Corrected Fact with Citation:

- Two Common Citation Mistakes and How to Avoid Them:

- Mistake: _____ How to Avoid:

- Mistake: _____ How to Avoid:

Reflection: Why is avoiding citation mistakes crucial for building trust in your ₹1,000 (approx. $12) school reports or personal blogs, and how can a quick checklist help? (2 sentences)

Reflection Corner: After completing this worksheet, write a short note (3-4 sentences) on what you learned about writing with integrity from these activities. Which concept—paraphrasing without plagiarizing, quoting effectively, integrating sources, or avoiding citation mistakes—do you think will help you most in school or personal projects, and why?
