

Chapter 5

MCQs

Question 1

You're struggling with a group project because one teammate isn't doing their part. What's the first step in solving this problem effectively?

- ☐ A) Immediately tell the teacher to fix it for you.
- ☐ B) Identify the specific issue, like "My teammate isn't contributing," and brainstorm solutions.
- ☐ C) Ignore it and hope they start working eventually.
- ☐ D) Confront the teammate angrily to demand they step up.

Correct Answer: B)

Identify the specific issue, like "My teammate isn't contributing," and brainstorm solutions.

Question 2

You're deciding whether to join a new club that meets after school, but you're already busy. What's the best way to make an informed decision?

- ☐ A) Flip a coin and go with whatever it lands on.
- ☐ B) Ask your best friend what they think and do whatever they say.
- ☐ C) Weigh the pros (new friends, fun) and cons (less free time, stress) before choosing.
- ☐ D) Join without thinking because it sounds cool right now.

Correct Answer: C)

Weigh the pros (new friends, fun) and cons (less free time, stress) before choosing.

Question 3

During an argument with a friend about cancelling plans, you feel yourself getting angry. What's the most constructive way to stay calm?

- A) Yell louder to make your point and get it over with.
- B) Walk away without saying anything and ignore them.
- C) Take a deep breath, count to 5, and speak in a lower voice to discuss it.
- D) Text someone else to complain about your friend mid-argument.

Correct Answer: C)

Take a deep breath, count to 5, and speak in a lower voice to discuss it.

Question 4

You and a sibling are fighting over who gets to use the family laptop tonight. What's the best way to negotiate a win-win solution?

- A) Insist you get it all night because you asked first.
- B) Suggest, "I feel frustrated when I can't finish my homework. Can we split the time—1 hour each?"
- C) Hide the laptop so neither of you can use it.
- D) Let them have it but complain the whole time.

Correct Answer: B)

Suggest, "I feel frustrated when I can't finish my homework. Can we split the time—1 hour each?"