

Chapter 6

MCQs

Question 1

You're struggling with history assignments because the readings are hard to follow. What's the best way to advocate for yourself?

- ☐ A) Keep quiet and hope it gets easier on its own.
- ☐ B) Ask your teacher, "I'm having trouble with the readings—can we go over them or get extra help?"
- ☐ C) Skip the assignments since they're too difficult.
- ☐ D) Complain to your friends but don't tell anyone who can help.

Correct Answer: B)

Ask your teacher, "I'm having trouble with the readings—can we go over them or get extra help?"

Question 2

At a hangout, some friends are pushing you to sneak out past curfew, but you're not comfortable with it. How should you handle this negative influence?

- ☐ A) Go along with it so you don't look lame.
- ☐ B) Say, "Nah, I'm good—gotta be home. Catch you tomorrow," and change the subject.
- ☐ C) Argue with them loudly to prove your point.
- ☐ D) Pretend to agree but secretly stay behind without telling them.

Correct Answer: B)

Say, "Nah, I'm good—gotta be home. Catch you tomorrow," and change the subject.

Question 3

You want to surround yourself with positive friends who respect your choices. What's the best way to start building this kind of circle?

- ☐ A) Stick with people who pressure you because they're popular.
- ☐ B) Join a club or activity you enjoy, like art or sports, to meet people with similar interests.
- ☐ C) Avoid making new friends since it's too risky.
- ☐ D) Only hang out with people who agree with everything you say.

Correct Answer: B)

Join a club or activity you enjoy, like art or sports, to meet people with similar interests.

Question 4

You're applying for a part-time job and have an interview. How can you practice self-advocacy during the process?

- ☐ A) Stay silent and hope they guess what you need.
- ☐ B) Say, "I'm excited to work here, but I have school until 3 PM. Can shifts fit my schedule?"
- ☐ C) Don't ask questions because it might look bad.
- ☐ D) Demand they give you the job without explaining why you're a good fit.

Correct Answer: B)

Say, "I'm excited to work here, but I have school until 3 PM. Can shifts fit my schedule?"