

Chapter 7

MCQs

Question 1

What is the main difference between a Growth Mindset and a Fixed Mindset?

- ☐ A) A Growth Mindset means you're naturally talented, while a Fixed Mindset means you're not.
- ☐ B) A Growth Mindset believes abilities can improve with effort, while a Fixed Mindset sees abilities as unchangeable.
- ☐ C) A Growth Mindset avoids challenges, while a Fixed Mindset embraces them.
- ☐ D) A Growth Mindset focuses on perfection, while a Fixed Mindset accepts flaws. Correct Answer: B) A Growth Mindset believes abilities can improve with effort, while a Fixed Mindset sees abilities as unchangeable.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 2

How can viewing challenges as opportunities to learn help you in high school?

- ☐ A) It guarantees you'll never fail at anything you try.
- ☐ B) It makes you avoid difficult tasks to protect your confidence.
- ☐ C) It builds confidence and skills by encouraging you to face tough situations and learn from them.
- ☐ D) It ensures everyone will like you for trying hard. Correct Answer: C) It builds confidence and skills by encouraging you to face tough situations and learn from them.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 3

After messing up a presentation in class, how would someone with a Growth Mindset likely respond?

- A) "I'm terrible at this and should never try again."
- B) "I'll pretend it didn't happen and avoid future presentations."
- C) "I struggled, but I can practice more and ask for feedback to improve next time."
- D) "Everyone thinks I'm a failure now, so I'll quit."Correct Answer:C) "I struggled, but I can practice more and ask for feedback to improve next time."

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 4

How can keeping a gratitude journal improve your mindset as a teen?

- A) It forces you to ignore all your problems and pretend everything is perfect.
- B) It trains your brain to notice positive things in your life, balancing out stress and negatives.
- C) It makes you compare yourself to others who have more to be thankful for.
- D) It guarantees you'll never feel sad or stressed again.Correct Answer:B) It trains your brain to notice positive things in your life, balancing out stress and negatives.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 5

What should you do if you've been feeling overwhelmed and sad for weeks, and it's not getting better?

- A) Keep it to yourself because asking for help shows weakness.
 - B) Distract yourself by spending all your time on social media or gaming.
 - C) Use a quick breathing trick like 4-7-8 and hope it fixes everything.
 - D) Reach out to a trusted friend, family member, or counselor for support and consider professional help.
- Correct Answer: D) Reach out to a trusted friend, family member, or counselor for support and consider professional help.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question