

Chapter 10

MCQs

Question 1

What is a key first step in managing multiple responsibilities as a high school student, according to the chapter?

- ☐ A) Taking on as many activities as possible to build a resume.
 - ☒ B) Assessing all your commitments by listing them out in categories like school and extracurriculars.
 - ☐ C) Focusing only on schoolwork and ignoring extracurriculars.
 - ☐ D) Avoiding personal responsibilities to save time for studying.
- Correct Answer: B. Assessing all your commitments by listing them out in categories like school and extracurriculars.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 2

How does the chapter suggest prioritizing tasks when juggling multiple roles?

- ☐ A) By focusing only on the most enjoyable activities first.
 - ☒ B) By using the Eisenhower Matrix to sort tasks by urgency and importance.
 - ☐ C) By completing all tasks randomly without a specific order.
 - ☐ D) By always prioritizing extracurriculars over schoolwork.
- Correct Answer: B. By using the Eisenhower Matrix to sort tasks by urgency and importance.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 3

Why does the chapter emphasize downtime as essential for high school students?

- ☐ A) It allows students to spend more time on social media without guilt.
- ☐ B) It helps reduce stress, improve productivity, and prevent burnout.
- ☐ C) It encourages students to avoid responsibilities completely.
- ☐ D) It is only necessary for students who are not busy. Correct Answer: B. It helps reduce stress, improve productivity, and prevent burnout.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 4

What is a common myth about downtime mentioned in the chapter?

- ☐ A) Downtime is a necessary part of maintaining mental health.
- ☐ B) Downtime is wasting time and should be avoided.
- ☐ C) Downtime can improve focus and creativity.
- ☐ D) Downtime is important even during busy periods like finals. Correct Answer: B. Downtime is wasting time and should be avoided.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 5

What is one strategy the chapter recommends for achieving work-life balance as a high school student?

- A) Ignoring personal time to focus entirely on school and extracurriculars.
- B) Using a time-blocking system to allocate specific periods for different activities.
- C) Taking on more commitments to stay busy at all times.
- D) Avoiding the use of technology to manage schedules. Correct Answer: B. Using a time-blocking system to allocate specific periods for different activities.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question

Question 6

How does the chapter suggest handling the feeling of guilt about taking breaks?

- A) By reminding yourself that rest improves performance and starting with small, guilt-free breaks.
- B) By avoiding breaks altogether to focus on responsibilities.
- C) By taking long breaks without planning, even if deadlines are approaching.
- D) By only taking breaks after all tasks are completed, no matter how long it takes. Correct Answer: A. By reminding yourself that rest improves performance and starting with small, guilt-free breaks.

Note: No correct answer specified for this question